Native American Direct Home Loan

Overview

The Native American Veteran Direct Loan (NADL) program began in 1992. Eligible Native American Veterans can use the program to finance the construction, purchase or improvement of a home on Federal trust land.

How Does the NADL Program Work?

VA may make a loan to any Native American Veteran. The Veteran's tribal or other sovereign governing body must enter into a Memorandum of Understanding with VA. Once this is in place, the Veteran applies directly to VA. The Veteran can apply for a 30-year fixed-rate loan to purchase, build or improve a home located on Federal trust land.

The NADL program is a loan and not a grant. The Veteran must repay it. If eligible, you can also refinance a previous NADL to lower your interest rate. For properties not located on Federal trust land, you can use the VA-Guaranteed Home Loan program.

Benefits of the NADL Program

- No down payment
- No private mortgage insurance
- Low fixed interest rate
- Low closing costs
- Borrow up to $417,000 in most areas
- Reusable benefit
