Asking Questions

As you participate in these briefings, you are encouraged to ask general questions, but please hold your personal questions about your individual situation for a one-one-one session with your Benefits Advisor.

If your Benefits Advisor cannot answer your general questions during class, he/she will place the questions in a “parking lot” and will provide an answer as soon as possible (during a break, after class, or in your one-on-one session.)

Course Evaluation

At the end of these briefings, you’ll be asked to complete an assessment to share how you would rate these briefings. When instructed by your Benefits Advisor or Transition Assistance Program (TAP) Manager, complete the assessment at www.dmdc.osd.mil/tgbsp.
VA Overview

VA Mission

You made sacrifices to keep our country—and everything it represents—safe. This is at the very core of our mission (Figure 0-1) to fulfill Lincoln’s promise “To care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow, and his orphan” by serving and honoring the men and women who are America’s Veterans.

How VA Supports You

As you make important choices about your family, finances, and career, we want you to choose VA. VA provides an exceptional level of service and we want you to take advantage of the benefits, services, and tools that VA offers to Service members, Veterans, families, caregivers, and survivors.

VA is divided into three administrations that work together to deliver these benefits to you:

- The Veterans Benefits Administration (VBA) takes your applications and determines your eligibility for compensation, pension, education, home loan guaranty, life insurance, and Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment (VR&E), as well as benefits assistance.

- The Veterans Health Administration (VHA) is America’s largest integrated health care system with over 1,700 sites of care and serves nearly 9 million Veterans each year. VHA provides health care in all its forms at medical centers, clinics, and Vet Centers.

- The National Cemetery Administration (NCA) provides burial and memorial benefits and maintains VA national cemeteries. NCA honors you and your eligible family members with lasting tributes that commemorate your service and sacrifice to our nation.
DD Form 214/Separation Documents

Your key to most of the VA benefits, services, and tools is the DD Form 214—Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty, often referred to as DD214. This form is proof of your military service, and shows:

- The character of your discharge
- Your record of service
- Your current classification code

To get a copy of your DD Form 214, go to the eBenefits website, select Military Personnel File under the Manage Benefits section, and then sign in or create an account. Keep your DD Form 214 in a safe and accessible location, and make sure that your next of kin or designated representatives know how to access it. Before you leave active duty, confirm the accuracy of the information on your form.

Check basic information such as name and date of birth, and important information in other sections. For example:

- Block 10 lists your Servicemembers Group Life Insurance (SGLI) coverage while in service. This is used by VA to determine your eligibility for life insurance after separation.
- Block 13 lists all awards you received during service. This is used by VA to determine your eligibility for programs that may have specific service requirements.
- Block 17 indicates the status of your service-provided dental care. This is used by VA to determine your eligibility for dental care after separation.

If this information is incorrect, it can affect your access to benefits you are entitled to. Review Figure 0-2 and take time to check and validate all information before you separate. It is much more difficult to make changes after separation.

- If you are changing your DD214 while in service, see your Military Personnel Organization.
- After service, use the Correcting Military Records section at this link: www.va.gov/opa/publications/benefits_book/Chapter_2_non_healthcare_benefits.asp.

Army or Air National Guard Service members will need NGB Form 22, Report of Separation and Record of Service (or NGB Form 23, Retirement Points Accounting). This supporting documentation of your service is issued upon separation. Be sure to check the following items for accuracy:

- Item 10a, which provides information on service for the current period
- Item 24, which indicates character of service

Additionally, be sure to save your Leave and Earnings Statement (LES) information before you separate.
Proof of Military Service

While in the military, you have used your DoD ID or Common Access Card, or CAC, as proof of your military service. But after separation, there may also be times when you need to provide proof of your military service.

You can access and print a Veterans identification proof of service letter at eBenefits. In some cases, your DD214 will work.

But wouldn’t it be easier if you had a card you can carry with you for the simple things, like discounts at restaurants? We have options for you.

- If you are retiring, you’ll get a retiree ID card. This serves as proof of your Veteran status and you don’t need any other proof.

- If you are not a retiree, you have some other options after separation to use as proof of service:
  - If you register for VA health care, you will get a Veterans Health Identification Card (VHIC) (Figure 0-3). This card serves as proof of your Veteran status and you don't need any other proof of service. You must be registered for the VA health care system to receive a VHIC. Once your registration is verified, you may have your picture taken at your local VA medical center, so that a VHIC can be mailed to you. We will talk more later about how to register in VA health care.
  - If you live in one of many participating states, you can add a Veteran indicator to your driver's license. Just go to your DMV to learn more.
  - Finally, if none of the above options are available to you, VA can provide a Veteran ID card for you.

Module 1: Navigating Your Journey

As you begin your transition journey, a good place to start is to ask yourself:

What do I want to do, and what do I want my life to be like?

VA can help ease your transition by:

- Supporting you and your loved ones throughout your transition
- Helping you identify the key benefits, services, and tools to support your goals

Your Transition Journey

Your transition journey (Figure 1-1) begins with asking yourself what you want to do and what you want your quality of life to be like. Taking time to establish your goals and priorities is important—it serves as the foundation for determining how you can take advantage of what is available to you.

This figure represents your transition journey. It covers some of the major themes in your life. Using the steps in the journey, you can start to understand the benefits and tools that can help you through these common areas of your transition.

During your transition journey, you will:

- Establish your personal goals and priorities
- Discover how VA benefits, support services, and tools can help you support yourself and your family
- Learn how to put your benefits to use to build the education, skills, or credentials you need to obtain the career you want
- Find a place to live and housing options
- Maintain your health and understand VA health care options
- Find ongoing community connections
Navigating Your Journey

You’re getting ready to transition, and there are decisions to be made. Not all your peers are in the same place in life—you each have different circumstances surrounding your family, your health, your employment, and more. One thing you all have in common is that you are transitioning back to civilian life. But no matter where you are on your transition journey, VA is here for you.

Take what you learn today to discover how you can get the most of out your VA benefits during your transition and beyond. These sessions are meant to be a discussion that will help you understand how VA benefits and services might apply to your life and your own personal circumstances.

Establish and Prioritize Your Goals

Your individual goals and priorities determine how you may make use of VA benefits, services, and tools during your transition and beyond. Not all the benefits apply to you, and you may not choose to take advantage of every benefit that is available.

The goal is for you to have enough information and resources available to make an informed decision about what is best for you. To make these decisions, you’ll need to assess your goals.

How do you measure “quality of life”? What does “quality of life” mean to you?

Don’t plan just for today but for tomorrow as well. If you don’t have a family now, do you see having a family in the future? This could change how you prepare your action plan regarding your benefits.
Activity: Self-Reflection

Think about how you want your life to look. Write down your personal plans, goals, or concerns under each topic on the following pages. Be sure to include priority—is the goal a high, medium, or low priority for you?

Keep this information and use it as your guide going forward. After this briefing:

- Take time to think through the activity and make changes, if appropriate.
- Discuss this information in one-on-one sessions with your Benefits Advisor to learn more about how VA benefits, support services, and tools can help make your plans a reality.
- Discuss with your family members, if applicable.

Module 2: Supporting Yourself and Your Family

You are preparing to leave the military now and enter the civilian world. There are opportunities and challenges in civilian life, but you are probably still forming a complete picture of how this change will affect you, and how you can make the best use of the skills you obtained during service. You expect there’s a lot to learn and are wondering where to start.

At this stage of your journey (Figure 2-1), the first thing to ask yourself is:

How am I going to support myself and my family?

VA can support you and your family during your transition and into the future by helping you:

- Plan and prepare for a job or career to fit your goals
- Understand the appropriate education, skills, and credentials that fit your goals
- Discover housing options
- Maintain support for your loved ones
- Establish social and community connections
Overview of VA Benefits, Support Services, and Tools

Now that you have started thinking about your quality of life and personal goals, think next about how VA benefits, support services, and tools can help you achieve them and build the life you want.

Activity: Use the VA Benefits Explorer Tool

explorer.va.gov

The VA Benefits Explorer (Figure 2-2) is an excellent tool to help you learn more about all VA benefits in one place. This tool is easy to navigate and provides information about each benefit that is simple and easy to understand. It includes eligibility information, links to apply, and more.

On your own time, review this Participant Guide and appendices in depth to get more detailed information. Take notes and discuss any questions with your Benefits Advisor.

Use this tool to help determine what benefits, services, and tools may be available to meet the goals you’ve outlined.

You can find steps and screenshots for this activity in Appendix C.

You can find detailed information about eligibility and applying for all VA benefits in Appendix A.

Navigating VA Employment Resources and Tools

For many of you, a key part of your transition is planning to reenter the workforce so you can support yourself and your family. Maybe you have an idea of what you want out of the next phase of your career, but maybe you don’t. Regardless of where you choose to work, helping you prepare for a new career is a priority for VA.

As you consider civilian career options, reflect on some things about yourself to guide your exploration. Use your military skills, your interests, and your career goals (Figure 2-3) to narrow your options and help you find a satisfying career.

Some military jobs translate very well into the civilian world, but that’s not the case for everyone. For example, civilian jobs in human resources, personnel, and management often require specific degrees, certifications, or other credentials. Military experience often is not an acceptable substitute.

In this situation, you might need to look at either going back to school to get required education and training, or choosing another route.

Maybe you have a job that translates well, but you are ready to change your career path. No matter what job you did in the military, you gained valuable skills like leadership, discipline, timeliness, teamwork, and a strong work ethic. These skill sets are all valuable in the civilian sector, too.

Finding your path to a rewarding career might involve:

- Attending a two- or four-year college
- Enrolling in a vocational or technical training program
- Obtaining a new certification
- Doing an apprenticeship or on-the-job training program
- Becoming licensed in a trade

VA and our partner agencies have benefits, support services, and tools available to help you explore career interests and options.

Explore Career Opportunities

VA has benefits, services, and tools related to education and employment. VA may help fund your education for some of the programs. We offer education and career counseling services to help you plan for your career and make the most out of your education benefits.

These benefits can provide the type of top-notch professional career services that civilians sometimes pay thousands of dollars for.

You can find detailed information about eligibility and how to apply for these benefits in Appendix A of this Participant Guide. In addition, links to detailed VA fact sheets about these benefits are available in Appendix D.

Veterans’ Employment Service Office (VESO)

www.vaforvets.va.gov

The Veterans’ Employment Service Office (VESO) offers employment and career management resources designed to attract, retain, and support Veterans as employees at VA and across the federal government.

Education and Career Counseling (Chapter 36)

www.benefits.va.gov/vocrehab/edu_voc_counseling.asp

VA’s Education and Career Counseling (Chapter 36) program is a great opportunity for you to get personalized career counseling and support to help guide your career path, ensure the most effective use of VA benefits, and help you achieve your education and career goals.

Chapter 36 benefits include:

- Guidance on the effective use of VA benefits and other resources
- Help selecting the best career options based on your interests and aptitudes
- Personalized academic or adjustment counseling to help remove barriers to success
• Assistance understanding your academic strengths and weaknesses
• One-on-one career counseling with a qualified career counselor to help you evaluate your skills and strengths, and compare them to your personal career goals
• Information on other resources to help you achieve your education and career goals

Eligibility

All the following are eligible for this benefit:
• Transitioning Service members within six months prior to discharge from active duty
• Veterans within one year following discharge from active duty
• Any Service member/Veteran currently eligible for a VA education benefit
• All current VA education beneficiaries

It's simple to apply. Just follow these steps:
• Log in to eBenefits at www.ebenefits.va.gov.
• Select Apply.
• Select Education and Training.
• Select Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment Benefits.
• Apply for Educational and Career Counseling.
• If you are eligible, you will be contacted for an appointment.

If you do not have access to eBenefits you may:
• Print VA Form 28-8832- Application for Counseling.
• Complete and mail the form to your nearest VA Regional Office to the attention of Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment. You can find your Regional Office at: www.benefits.va.gov/benefits/offices.asp.

Monetary Benefits: Disability Compensation

VA offers disability compensation to eligible Veterans and additional benefits for Veterans with specific service-connected disabilities. If you are disabled because of your service, you may be entitled to these monetary benefits that can help you support yourself and your family.

You can find detailed information about eligibility and how to apply for disability compensation and related benefits in Appendix A of this Participant Guide. In addition, links to detailed VA fact sheets are available in Appendix D.
Disability Compensation Overview

https://www.benefits.va.gov/compensation/

Disability compensation is a tax-free, monetary benefit paid to Veterans who are disabled by an injury or illness that was incurred or aggravated during active duty military service. These disabilities are considered service-connected. Compensation varies with the degree of disability and is paid monthly.

Service-connected disabilities are rated from 0 percent to 100 percent, in 10% increments, and monetary payments begin at 10 percent. Veterans with a combined evaluation of 30% or more are eligible for an additional allowance for their dependents. Your compensation may be offset if you receive military retirement pay, disability severance pay, or separation incentive pay.

VA does not compensate for acute conditions or conditions that come and go and leave no lasting effects—a cold, for example, or a mild injury that heals completely.

Establishing Service Connection

To be eligible for disability compensation, you must:

- Have served in the Uniformed Services on active duty, active duty for training or inactive duty training, AND
- Be discharged under other than dishonorable conditions, AND
- Be at least 10% disabled by an injury or disease that was incurred in or aggravated during active duty, active duty for training or inactive duty for training

There must also be medical evidence to support your claim. To support a claim for service connection, the evidence must show the following:

- Current physical or mental disability, AND
- Injury or disease incurred in service or experience of an event in service that caused or aggravated an injury or disease, AND
- A link between your current disability and the event, injury, or disease in military service

Examples:

- During a weekend drill, an Army Reservist injures her knee while participating in a physical training class. She is eligible to apply for compensation for lasting effects of the knee injury.
- An individual enlisted in the U.S Navy in June of 2002 served for a period of 4 years. He was honorably discharged in 2006. During his active duty, he fell from a bunk and injured his back. Based on his active service, he may be entitled to service-connected benefits for the lasting effectives of his back injury.
Disability service ratings are determined by VA. Service connection is established as follows:

- Direct: A disability resulting from an in-service injury, illness, disease, or incident, and there is no evidence of a preservice incurrence
  - For example: Prior to service, your feet were fine. During service, you were diagnosed with bilateral flat feet. Or, you underwent back surgery during service and you are diagnosed with lower back limitations, chronic pain, and weakness.

- Aggravated: A pre-existing condition that became worse in service
  - For example: You broke your leg in high school, and it healed without permanent disability. You annotated the injury at a Military Entrance Processing Station, or MEPS, and it became worse beyond the natural progression of the disability due to your military service.

- Presumptive: A condition presumed to be service-connected if the disability manifested to a compensable degree within time limits set by law
  - Example 1: In the early 1980s, contaminants were found in several wells that provided water at Camp Lejeune, N.C. There is evidence of an association between certain diseases and the contaminants found in the water supply, so VA may presume a service-connection for these identified disabilities.
  - Example 2: You worked with asbestos during service as part of the motor pool. You are diagnosed with asbestos-related symptoms and you’ve had no other exposure to asbestos since your separation from service. VA may presume a service connection for asbestos exposure.

- Secondary: A new condition caused by a previously established service-connected condition
  - For example: Refer back to the example of flat feet, above (direct service connection). You have now been rated by VA for service connection for this condition. Your knees were fine before, and you did not suffer with pain or limitations of your knees. However, you now have chronic knee pain and limitations. Your doctor states that your gait (walk) has been altered due to your flat feet, which has resulted in your current knee problem. Your knee condition may be considered service-connected as secondary to your direct service-connected flat feet condition.

Applying for Disability Compensation

Applying for disability benefits is called “filing a claim.” There are multiple ways to apply (Table 2-1) depending on where you are in your transition.

VA encourages all Service members to use the methods that allow you to file pre-discharge because it makes the claim process easier and faster. Also, if you file your claim soon enough, it provides an opportunity to have your VA examinations conducted while still on active duty.

</tr>
</table>

If you are a demobilizing National Guard or Reserve member, you are exempt from the requirement to provide a copy of your Service Treatment Records (STR) for your current period of service at the time you file your pre-discharge claim.

The Disability Claims Process

When filing a disability claim, VA may need to gather additional evidence to support your claim. There is an eight-step process (Figure 2-4) that your claim will go through and your VA representative will work directly with you on the process after submission.
The length of time each step requires may vary depending on the complexity of the claim, the amount of evidence that must be gathered to support the claim, and the type of evidence needed. To help minimize processing time, submit as much evidence as possible with your claim.

Step 1: Claim Received

The claim has been received by VA. If you applied online, you should see a record of receipt in your list of open claims within one hour. If you applied by mail, please allow mailing time plus one week for VA to process and record receipt of the claim.

Step 2: Under Review

The claim is assigned to a Veteran Service Representative (VSR) and is reviewed to determine if additional evidence is needed. If no additional information is needed, the claim will move directly to Step 5: Preparation for Decision.

Step 3: Gathering of Evidence

If more information is needed, the VSR will request it from the required sources. Requests for evidence may be made to you, a medical professional, a government agency, or another authority. It is common for claims to return to this phase should additional evidence be required.

Step 4: Review of Evidence

VA has received all needed evidence. If, upon review, more evidence is required, the claim will be sent back to Step 3: Gathering of Evidence.

Step 5: Preparation for Decision

The VSR recommended a decision and is preparing required documents detailing that decision. If more evidence is required, the claim will be sent back in the process for more information or evidence.
Step 6: Pending Decision Approval

The recommended decision is reviewed. If it is favorable, a final award approval is made. If it is determined that more evidence or information is required, the claim will be sent back in the process for more information or evidence.

Step 7: Preparation for Notification

The entire claim decision packet is prepared for mailing.

Step 8: Complete

A decision packet is sent via U.S. mail. The packet includes details of the decision or award. Standard mailing time should be allowed for the packet to arrive before contacting a VA call center.

Questions concerning disability ratings or payments due from VA should be directed to VA by phone at 800-827-1000.

Claim Effective Date

You should file your claim within one year of separating. If VA receives your claim within one year of the day you left active service, the effective date can be as early as the day following separation. If you did not file your claim within one year, your effective date may be the date VA receives your claim.

Example 1
Shaun is a Veteran who ended his active service on Sept. 30, 2013 with a hearing disability. He filed a claim for his hearing problem more than a year later.

VA received Shaun’s claim on Nov. 15, 2014. On Mar. 10, 2015, VA awarded Shaun a 30% disability rating with an effective date of Nov. 15, 2014—the date they got the claim.

Example 2
Ric is a Veteran who ended his active service on Sept. 30, 2013 with a hearing disability. He filed a claim for his hearing problem less than a year later.

VA received Ric’s claim on Jul. 5, 2014. Because they received it within one year of his separation from active service, VA awarded Ric a 30% disability rating with an effective date of Oct. 1, 2013—the day after Ric’s separation from the military.

Separation Health Assessment

The Separation Health Assessment is a comprehensive standardized physical examination conducted prior to separation from the military. The DD Form 2807-1, Report of Medical History, is used to complete the physical exam.

This form documents current or past medical conditions and allows for more efficient identification of service-connected conditions and subsequent delivery of current or future disability benefits.

It is mandatory for every Service member to have an exam conducted prior to separation.
If you are filing a disability claim at least 90 days prior to separation and your examination is requested with at least 90 days remaining on active duty, you will undergo the Separation Health Assessment, which meets the needs of both VA’s compensation examination and the DoD’s separation or retirement physical.

If you are filing your claim less than 90 days prior to separation or if you are not filing a disability claim at all, you will undergo the DoD’s Separation History and Physical Examination.

If you don’t have online access:

- You may go to a VA Regional Office and have a VA employee assist you or mail your form to your local office.
- And, you can contact and work with an accredited Veteran Service Organization representative who can assist you in submitting your claim.

Monetary Benefits: Ancillary Benefits

VA has additional ancillary benefits that may be available to those with certain conditions or serious disabilities. This might not apply to you right now, but later in life your service-connected disability may lead to certain limitations and may make you eligible for these additional benefits.

You can find detailed information about eligibility and how to apply for these benefits in Appendix A of this Participant Guide. In addition, links to detailed VA fact sheets are available in Appendix D.

Clothing Allowance

www.benefits.va.gov/COMPENSATION/claims-special-clothing_allowance.asp
Veterans who have unique clothing needs due to a service-related disability or injury may receive a supplement to their disability compensation. If you are eligible, you can receive a one-time or yearly clothing allowance, which reimburses you if your clothing gets permanently damaged by a prosthetic or orthopedic appliance or by a prescribed medication used on your skin.

You must have a previously submitted claim for disability prior to applying for a clothing allowance.

Automobile Allowance and Adaptive Equipment Grant

Some Service members or Veterans have permanent disabilities resulting from injury or disease incurred or aggravated during active duty. If you are eligible, you may get a one-time payment toward the purchase of a new or used automobile or other conveyance to accommodate your disability. The funds are paid directly to the seller of the automobile.

Certain Service members and Veterans may also be eligible for adaptive equipment. Adaptive equipment includes, but is not limited to:

- Power steering, power brakes, power windows, and power seats
- Special equipment to assist you with getting in and out of the vehicle

You must have prior VA approval before purchasing an automobile or adaptive equipment.

Service Disabled Veterans Insurance (S-DVI)

Service-Disabled Veterans Insurance (S-DVI) provides life insurance coverage up to $10,000 to Veterans who incurred a service-connected disability while in service. Applications must be submitted within two years from the date of notification that a new service-connected disability was approved by VA. Veterans must have separated from service on or after Apr. 25, 1951 to apply.

Service Dog

VA partners with certain accredited dog organizations to provide service dogs to eligible Veterans. VA also provides a veterinary insurance benefit so the service dogs can do their jobs to assist Veterans with mobility limitations. Covered benefits include equipment such as a harness or backpack that allows for optimal use of the dog, prescribed medications, veterinary office visits, dental procedures where the dog is sedated, and all required vaccinations. If you qualify, there are no out-of-pocket expenses for this benefit. You can find more information about this benefit in Appendix A.
Monetary Benefits: Additional Benefits

There may be additional benefits available to you depending on your circumstances. You can find detailed information about eligibility and how to apply for these benefits in Appendix A of this Participant Guide. In addition, links to detailed VA fact sheets are available in Appendix D.

Veterans Pension

[Link to VA Pension page]

Veterans Pension is a benefit paid to wartime Veterans who have limited or no income and meet congressional net worth mandates. Veterans who are seriously disabled may qualify for Aid & Attendance (A&A) or Housebound benefits. These are benefits paid in addition to the basic pension rate.

- VA's pension program provides monthly benefit payments to certain wartime Veterans with financial need, and their survivors.
- Aid and Attendance (A&A) is an increased monthly pension amount paid to a Veteran or surviving spouse.
- Housebound is an increased monthly pension amount paid to a Veteran or surviving spouse who is substantially confined to his or her home because of permanent disability.

DoD Benefits

Congress created two programs to allow eligible military retirees to receive monthly entitlements in addition to retired pay: Combat-Related Special Compensation (CRSC) and Concurrent Retirement and Disability Pay (CRDP).

In general, the law prohibits concurrent receipt of VA disability compensation and military retired pay, unless the amount of retired pay equal to the amount of disability compensation paid is waived. Most retirees choose this waiver to receive their VA disability compensation because it is tax-free income, while their military pension is taxed by the federal government and by most states. Veterans who choose this option will never receive less than their full retired pay amount.

Note: These are DoD benefits, so you would need to contact your branch of service for more information.

Combat-Related Special Compensation (CRSC)

[Link to CRSC page]

CRSC is a benefit administered by the DoD. It is a monthly, tax-free compensation payable to qualified Veterans who have their military retired pay offset due to their receipt of VA compensation for combat-related disabilities.
Payment Amount

The CRSC benefit is equal to the amount of VA compensation that is determined to be attributable to your combat-related disabilities. However, the CRSC benefit amount may not exceed the total amount that is offset from your military retired pay because you are getting VA disability compensation. In addition, if you are receiving disability retired pay, your CRSC entitlement is subject to an offset by the amount which your retired pay based on disability exceeds your retired pay based on your years of service.

Concurrent Retirement and Disability Pay (CRDP)

CRDP is a benefit administered by the DoD. CRDP restores retired pay to retirees with a 50 to 100% VA-rated disability. Enrollment is automatic if you are eligible.

Family Caregiver Support Program – Stipend Benefit

www.caregiver.va.gov

A primary family caregiver may play an important role in your health and well-being. The Family Caregiver Support Program offers training, educational resources, and multiple tools to help you succeed. A monthly stipend may be paid to a primary family caregiver for providing personal care services to an eligible Veteran enrolled in the Caregiver Support Program.

Navigate Housing Options

It’s important to consider where you’re going to live, whether that’s moving in with family or buying a home. Factors you may want to consider include:

- Do you already know where you will live?
- Do you have a home you’re moving back into?
- Are you planning to rent? Buy? Build?

It is important to understand early on how VA benefits and services help support you and your family, because that may be another factor in your decision.

Planning for Loved Ones: Life Insurance

explore.va.gov/life-insurance

https://www.benefits.va.gov/insurance/overviewinsurance.html
VA life insurance benefits are especially important to separating Service members who have conditions that might make them uninsurable or insurable at higher premium rates.

VA offers several types of life insurance benefits for Service members and Veterans (Table 2-2). Life insurance can provide financial peace of mind for your family when you pass away. Decisions on life insurance are personal and should be based on your own financial needs and goals.

You may be thinking you can get life insurance through an employer. But if you leave your job, you’ll lose your insurance.

VA has life insurance options that you can take with you wherever you work or live. It is important to consider these options early on because there are strict deadlines you don’t want to miss. The table below provides an overview of these options and deadlines.

You can find detailed information about eligibility and how to apply for these benefits in Appendix A of this Participant Guide. In addition, links to detailed VA fact sheets are available in Appendix D.

FSGLI provides coverage for spouses and dependent children of Service members insured under the SGLI program.

- Dependent children are covered for $10,000 automatically at no cost.
For Service members insured full-time under SGLI, spousal coverage is impacted as follows:

- A spouse may convert their coverage to an individual policy offered by a participating insurer within 120 days from the Service member’s date of separation. The same 120-day period applies for converting an FSGLI policy in the event of divorce, death, or termination of coverage. |

- Premiums are charged based on age.
- Lifetime coverage is guaranteed as long as premiums are paid.
- Veterans may only convert the same amount of SGLI coverage they had at discharge to VGLI. Lesser amounts of coverage are also available in increments of $10,000.
Once enrolled in VGLI, Veterans can increase coverage by $25,000 every five years, up to the legislated maximum of $400,000, until age 60. |

Life Insurance Program

Features

VMLI provides mortgage life insurance designed to pay off the home mortgages of severely disabled Service members and Veterans upon death.

- VMLI provides up to $200,000 of coverage and is payable only to the mortgage holder (that is, a bank or mortgage lender), not to a beneficiary.
- The amount of coverage issued equals the lesser of the amount of the mortgage still owed, or $200,000.
- To be eligible to apply for VMLI, Service members and Veterans must have received an SAH grant, have at least partial ownership of the home, have a mortgage on the home, and be under age 70.

Planning for Loved Ones: Memorial Benefits

VA Burial Benefits

explore.va.gov/memorial-benefits

Burial in a VA National Cemetery is available for eligible Veterans, their spouses, and dependents. Burial benefits include all the following, at no cost to the family:

- A gravesite in any VA National Cemetery with available space
- The opening and closing of the grave
- Continuous care of the grave
- A government headstone, marker, medallion, or burial flag (including faith-based markers)
- A Presidential Memorial Certificate

A full list of faith-based markers can be found at www.cem.va.gov/cem/docs/emblems.pdf.

Presidential Memorial Certificates are issued upon request to recognize the U.S. military service of honorably discharged deceased Veterans. Next of kin, relatives, and other loved ones may apply for a certificate at www.cem.va.gov/pmc.asp.

Arlington National Cemetery

https://www.arlingtoncemetery.mil/Funerals/Scheduling-a-Funeral/Establishing-Eligibility
Laying our Nation’s veterans and their eligible family members to rest with dignity and honor, while treating their loved ones with respect and compassion, is the cornerstone of Arlington National Cemetery’s mission. Visit the Arlington National Cemetery website to determine eligibility.

State Veteran Cemeteries

State Veteran cemeteries offer burial options for Veterans and their families. These cemeteries have similar eligibility requirements, but many require state residency. Some services, particularly for family members, may require a fee. Contact the state cemetery or state Veterans Affairs office for information.

Private Plot Allowance

VA will pay a plot allowance for Veterans buried in a cemetery not under U.S. government jurisdiction in any of the following circumstances.

- The Veteran was discharged from active duty because of a disability incurred or aggravated in the line of duty.
- The Veteran was receiving compensation or pension, or would have been if the Veteran was not receiving military retired pay.
- The Veteran died in a VA facility.

The plot allowance may be paid to the state for the cost of a plot or interment in a state-owned cemetery reserved solely for Veteran burials if the Veteran is buried without charge. Burial expenses paid by the deceased’s employer or a state agency will not be reimbursed.

Pre-Need Program

www.cem.va.gov/cem/pre-need

The Pre-Need burial eligibility determination program assists anyone who would like to know if they are eligible for burial in a VA National Cemetery. You and your eligible family members are encouraged to plan a final resting place in advance to eliminate unnecessary delays and reduce stress on your family at a difficult time. Families of those registered with the Pre-Need Program will have increased confidence that their loved ones are eligible for burial in a VA National Cemetery at their time of need.

Veterans Service Organizations (VSOs)

Veterans Service Organizations (VSOs) are organizations that serve the needs of Veterans, their families, and survivors. Some VSOs are "chartered," which means they are federally chartered and/or recognized or approved by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs for purposes of preparation, presentation, and prosecution of claims under laws administered by the Department of Veterans Affairs. Non-chartered organizations do not constitute or reflect VA recognition of said organization and its representatives for purposes of representation of VA claimants.

The VA Office of General Counsel accredits chartered organizations through an intense process that requires approval by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs. Once accredited, VSOs routinely participate in extensive training programs and receive comprehensive continuing education to maintain the most current information concerning Veterans’ benefits.

VSOs are trained and knowledgeable in all areas of Veterans benefits. VSOs, together with state, county, and local Veteran Service Representatives (VSRs), help Veterans, their families, and survivors understand and navigate benefits programs such as compensation, survivor benefits, pension, health care, education, vocational rehabilitation and employment, home loans, life insurance, and burial benefits. They will also assist claimants with health care eligibility, VA Home Loan Guaranty, and other Veterans benefits, including those offered by the state. These services are provided free of charge by chartered VSOs.

There are many VSOs across the country that can help you fill out VA forms, tell you about VA benefits, and provide other forms of assistance. VSOs are either “recognized” or “nonrecognized.” A recognized organization can legally represent you before VA, while a nonrecognized organization cannot represent you before VA, but can provide you with information. If an organization’s help requires unusual expenses, such as extensive photocopying, you should inquire about its policies for reimbursement. Most organizations that provide these services are free. Check with the organization for specifics.

If you want to appoint a recognized VSO as your representative, that organization or VA can provide you with VA Form 21-22, Appointment of Veterans Service Organization as Claimant’s Representative, which acts as a limited power of attorney (POA). This limited POA allows the VSO to represent you only for VA-related claim issues. Find the form at www.vba.va.gov/pubs/forms/VBA-21-22-ARE.pdf.
How to Locate a VSO

- Search the database at www.va.gov/ogc/apps/accreditation/index.asp. This database includes all recognized VSOs as well as accredited national, state, and local VSO representatives, attorneys, and claims agents.
- Search on the eBenefits portal to find a VSO near you.
  - Go to eBenefits at www.ebenefits.va.gov/ebenefits/apply and click Manage Your VA Representative.
  - On the next page, you can choose Representative Request (to find a claims agent, attorney, or VSO to assist you) or Representative Search (to search by state, city, ZIP code, or the name of a VSO).
  - Your search results will include the VSOs in a geographic area in alphabetical order.
- Some VA Medical Centers, VA Regional Offices, or military installations have VSOs on premises.

Veteran Peer Groups

There are more Veteran Peer Group organizations to help support you than we can mention here. These grassroots support groups are not only focused on benefits, but also community reintegration, service, and legislative advocacy.

Also, there are peer support services at VHA facilities. No one know what you have been through like someone who has been through it themselves. These groups offer peer support from people who share your experiences and have also navigated the transition journey before you.

Here are just a few of these support groups:

- Student Veterans of America aims to provide Veterans with the resources, support, and advocacy needed to succeed in higher education and following graduation. www.studentveterans.org
- Team Red White and Blue aims to enrich the lives of America’s Veterans by connecting them to their community through physical and social activity. www.teamrwb.org
- The Mission Continues aims to empower Veterans who are adjusting to lives at home to find purpose through community impact. www.missioncontinues.org
- Team Rubicon unites the skills and experiences of Veterans with first responders to rapidly deploy emergency response teams. www.teamrubiconusa.org

Additionally, the United Service Organizations (USO) supports Service members by keeping them connected to family, home, and country throughout their service. Their Pathfinder program extends these services to you and your family as you transition from the military and settle in to your new community. Learn more at www.uso.org.
Community Connections

There are many resources to support your transition and your use of VA benefits and services to help support yourself and your family. This includes applying for benefits, finding employment and housing, getting emotional and social support, and more.

VA has specific services, such as Social Work and Mental Health Services, to help Veterans with a mental health diagnosis find employment. Finding satisfying work that supports your financial health is important to maintaining happiness and balance. If you have a hard time finding work or educational programs that match your skills, interests, and abilities, VA has resources to support you.

Emotional and Social Health Support

www.mentalhealth.va.gov
www.ptsd.va.gov

VA is here to support you and your family in many situations and circumstances. There are multiple programs in place to help support your emotional and social health:

- VA Mental Health and Social Work Services programs can help you find employment, resources to assist with food insecurity, housing, caregiving resources, and more. www.socialwork.va.gov
- The Compensative Work Therapy (CWT) program helps Veterans living with mental illness or physical impairment find and keep competitive employment. Veterans are not required to have a service-connected disability to be eligible for CWT services. www.va.gov/health/cwt
- Vet Centers provide a Veteran-centered place where you can seek counseling for various issues, support for substance abuse, employment support, and more. Service members and family members can also use Vet Centers. www.vetcenter.va.gov
- The About Face program provides resources focused on support for PTSD. www.ptsd.va.gov/apps/AboutFace/Index.html#
- The Make the Connection Campaign helps connect you with information, resources, and solutions to handle a variety of issues that impact your life. www.maketheconnection.net
- VA Voluntary Service is a great way to stay engaged in your community and support positive emotional and social health. www.volunteer.va.gov/index.asp

Support with Benefits and Services

You can also get help with your questions about a variety of benefits and services. Find your VA Regional Benefits Office to get assistance with VA benefits and services at www.benefits.va.gov/benefits/offices.asp.
Working with Community Organizations

There are a lot of community organizations available to provide services and support to Veterans. Nongovernmental organizations have tremendous talent and resources that can expand and enhance VA services to Veterans, their families, caregivers, and survivors. However, beware, not all organizations are the same. Before agreeing to work with a local organization, it is important to perform some due diligence to increase the odds that you’ll have a positive experience. You can search in the National Resource Directory (NRD) to see if the organization is listed. www.nrd.gov

When beginning to explore if an organization may be a good match for you, it can be helpful to start with a simple web search and to read reviews, if there are any. You can gain some insight into other individuals’ experiences, as well as determine if the organization is presenting itself honestly. Speaking to people who have worked with the organization can also be helpful.

GuideStar (www.guidestar.org) is just one website that can be used to get information about non-profit organizations and how they choose to spend their money. For example, if an organization spends more than half of the money it receives on administrative tasks, and not on providing services to the people they’re supposed to be serving, then perhaps it might not be an organization that you would want to consider working with. Perhaps their focus isn’t on their stated mission.

Things to consider include:

- Does this organization appear reputable?
- Does the information that has shown up through Internet searches, reviews, and speaking to people support what the organization states its mission to be?
- Is there anything that seems too good to be true?

If, after your initial due diligence, the organization still seems like one you’d like to work with, then consider reaching out directly and schedule some time to either talk on the phone or in person.

Things to consider include:

- Does the person you’re speaking to sound well-informed? Are they listening to you and your specific needs?
- If you’re visiting the organization, does the building feel safe and well-maintained? Do you feel comfortable being in the building?
- Are they promising anything that sounds too good to be true or something that is completely different from what other people, organizations, and/or resources have stated about the same topic?
- Does this organization work with VA? If so, how do you know?
The DoD and VA eBenefits website provides resources and self-service capabilities to Service members, Veterans, and their families to research, access, and manage their VA and military benefits and personal information. It also provides a list of links to other sites that offer information about military and Veteran benefits.

eBenefits uses secure credentials to allow you to access your personal information and gives you the ability to perform numerous self-service functions. Some of the features within eBenefits allow you to:

- Access official military personnel documents
- View the status of your disability compensation claim
- Register for and update direct deposit information for certain benefits
- Apply for Veterans’ Group Life Insurance (VGLI)

Access Requirements

Before you can access and use eBenefits, you must be listed in the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS) and obtain a DS Logon. Service members can access eBenefits with a DS Logon or Common Access Card (CAC). A DS Logon is a secure identity used by several DoD and VA websites, including eBenefits. A DS Logon account provides you with access to a host of additional sites beyond eBenefits, including DoD Transition Assistance Program (TAP), Spouse Education Career Opportunities (SECO), multiple TRICARE sites, milConnect, and My HealtheVet. If you are already registered in DEERS, you are eligible for a DS Logon. Once you have a DS Logon, it’s valid for the rest of your life.

Note: If a Veteran attempts to register and the system says they have no DEERS record, VA will first need to verify their military service and add them to DEERS. All VA Regional Offices have staff familiar with procedures for adding a Veteran to DEERS.

Registering for an Account

You can register for an eBenefits account online using the eBenefits DS Logon Account Registration Wizard. You will walk through a series of questions to assist you in obtaining a Premium Access account, which gives you the highest level of access to eBenefits features. With a Premium Access account, you can view personal data about yourself in VA and DoD systems, apply for benefits online, check the status of your claims, update your address records, and more.

- Most people will be able to verify their identity online by answering a few security questions.
- Service members may verify their identity online by using their CAC.
- Military retirees may verify their identity online using their Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) Logon.
If you are not able to verify your identity online, you will automatically receive a Basic Account, which lets you customize the site and access information you enter into eBenefits. This account will not allow you to see your personal information in VA or DoD systems. Veterans who receive VA benefits through direct deposit may have their identity verified by calling 1-800-827-1000 and selecting option 7, Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Eastern Time. Others may need to visit a VA Regional Office or TRICARE Service Center to have their identity verified in person.

Activity: Create a DS Logon

Your facilitator will lead you through the steps to create a DS Logon account. You can find steps and screenshots for this activity in Appendix C.

Activity: Explore eBenefits

Open the eBenefits site on your computer at www.ebenefits.va.gov.

Your facilitator will lead you through a tour of eBenefits (Table 2-4). On your screen, you may notice a [P] next to some of the topics. This means they require a Premium Access account.

You can find steps and screenshots for this activity in Appendix C.

Activity Worksheet: Start Your Personal Action Plan

Think about the goals you created earlier today. What did you learn about VA benefits, services, and tools that can help you get there? What goals relate to what we just covered? List them again here.

Then, work in Table 2-5 to create your own action plan. Note which actions you need to complete to take advantage of VA benefits, support services, and tools that can help you build the kind of life you want to have. Cross through the things that don’t apply to you, or use the blank spaces at the bottom to add more items to your list.

You will have the opportunity to update your plan throughout the briefings.

Be sure to note the deadlines and important timeframes for completing each action.

Module 3: Getting Career-Ready

Now that you’ve started to think about how you will support yourself and your family across the board, it’s time to focus specifically on building your career.

At this stage of your journey (Figure 3-1), you might be asking yourself:

Am I prepared to obtain my preferred career?

As you learned earlier, getting career-ready may mean going back to school, getting new certifications, or otherwise building your credentials to get qualified for the career you want. VA stands ready to support you in:

- Building the career that fits your goals
- Obtaining the appropriate education, skills, and credentials that fit your goals
- Finding the right job or career opportunity
- Developing professional and community connections
Understanding Career Counseling Opportunities

At this stage of your transition, you may be focused on career preparation and ready to apply for benefits that can help you achieve your career goals.

Education and Career Counseling (Chapter 36)

You can get Education and Career Counseling (Chapter 36) benefits, guidance, coaching, and one-on-one assistance in charting your academic and career path. Remember, you’ll need to apply for this free, personalized education and career counseling service.

You can find detailed information about eligibility and how to apply for Education and Career Counseling in Appendix A of this Participant Guide. In addition, links to detailed VA fact sheets are available in Appendix D.

Vocational Rehabilitation & Employment (VR&E)

If you have service-connected disabilities and employment handicaps, Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment (VR&E), also known as Chapter 31, can help. A Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor (VRC) will work with you to assess your interests and abilities, develop your goals for employment and maximum independence, and explore employment opportunities.

VR&E also has education benefits. If you are eligible, VR&E may provide additional support and resources not provided by the GI Bill.

- In general, you must use all VR&E services within 12 years from the date you separated from active military service, or from the date VA officially notified you of your disability rating (whichever is later).
- The basic period of eligibility may be extended if you have a serious employment handicap.

After you apply and VA determines you are eligible for VR&E services, VA will schedule a meeting for you with a Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor (VRC).

The VRC will assess your interests, aptitudes and abilities, and whether your service-connected disabilities impair your ability to find and/or hold a job using the training and occupational skills you already have. If you are eligible, we can help you evaluate the following employment or lifestyle goals (Table 3-1).

Basic Period of Eligibility

The law generally provides for a 12-year basic period of eligibility in which VR&E services may be used. The 12-year period begins on the latter of these dates:

- Date of separation from active military duty
- Date the Veteran was first notified of a service-connected disability rating

Who Is Entitled to Receive VR&E Service?

As an active duty Service member, you are entitled if you:

- Expect to receive an honorable or other than dishonorable discharge upon separation from active duty, AND
- Obtain a VA memorandum rating (VA Form 28-0588 – Notice to VA Veterans Service Center) of 20% or more.

OR (until Sept. 2018) if you:

- Are participating in the Integrated Disability Evaluation System (IDES) or are certified by the military as having a severe injury or illness that may prevent you from performing your military duties (Service members who are participating in IDES are presumed entitled), AND
- Report for an evaluation with a VR&E counselor before separating for active duty.

As a Veteran, you are entitled if you:

- Have received, or will receive an honorable or other than dishonorable discharge, AND
- Have a VA service-connected disability rating of 10% with a serious employment handicap or 20% or more with an employment handicap.

It's simple to apply. Just follow these steps:

- Select Apply.
- Select Education and Training.
- Select Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment Benefits.
- Apply for the Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment Program.
- If it is determined that you are eligible, you will be invited to attend an orientation session at the nearest VA Regional Office. You can find your Regional Office at: https://www.benefits.va.gov/benefits/offices.asp.

If you do not have access to eBenefits you may:

- Print VA Form 28-1900 – Disabled Veterans Application for Vocational Rehabilitation. Remember, if you are Active Duty, you need to attach VA Form 28-0588 – Notice to VA Veterans Service Center.
• Complete and mail the form to your nearest VA Regional Office to the attention of Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment. You can find your Regional Office at: https://www.benefits.va.gov/benefits/offices.asp.

If you don’t have online access:

• You may go to a VA Regional Office and have a VA employee assist you or mail your form to your local office.

You can find detailed information about eligibility and how to apply for VR&E in Appendix A of this Participant Guide. In addition, links to detailed VA fact sheets are available in Appendix D.

Education Benefits

Career readiness may involve going back to school or participating in skills training. VA education benefits can fund that dream by helping you pay for tuition and fees and maybe even books, supplies, and monthly housing costs. GI Bill benefits are not just for a four-year degree—you can apply them to on-the-job training, flight training, or certification tests; just to name a few.

There are different types of GI Bill Education Benefits (Table 3-2).

You can find detailed information about eligibility and how to apply for these benefits in Appendix A of this Participant Guide. In addition, links to detailed VA fact sheets are available in Appendix D.

Monthly Housing Allowance

- The amount is based on the length of your active duty service.
- The amount is equal to the military Basic Allowance for Housing (BAH) payable to an E-5 with dependents, and is based on the ZIP code of the primary location of the school.
- The allowance is paid directly to the beneficiary, but is not available if the Service member is on active duty or enrolled at half-time or less (as determined by the school).
- The allowance is not available for spouses while the Service member is on active duty.
- Distance learners receive half the MHA national average.

Books and Supplies Stipend

- The stipend is issued directly to the student when the school certifies enrollment.
- The amount is pro-rated based on length of service and the number of credits/hours being taken.
- The stipend is available for those enrolled in non-college degrees, apprenticeships, or on-the-job training programs.

Yellow Ribbon Program

- Colleges can partner with VA to help pay tuition and fee expenses that exceed the in-state tuition rate.
  - Note: Tuition and fees may exceed this amount due to attending a private institution or graduate school or because of an out-of-state or nonresident status.

Forever GI Bill

The Harry W. Colmery Veterans Educational Assistance Act of 2017, also known as the Forever GI Bill, contains several changes that affect the GI Bill recipients past and future.

The biggest change in the Forever GI Bill is that the 15-year limitation to use Post-9/11 GI Bill benefits is eliminated for:

• Veterans who left active duty on or after Jan. 1, 2013,
• Children who became eligible for the Fry Scholarship on or after Jan. 1, 2013, AND
• All Fry scholarship-eligible spouses.

More changes roll out after 2018, and most of the changes enhance or expand education benefits.

Eligibility for Multiple GI Bill Benefits

You may be eligible for more than one VA education benefit program. However, you may only receive payments from one program at a time.

• If you are eligible for MGIB-SR or MGIB-AD, you must elect to give up eligibility under the program for which you are eligible to receive benefits under the Post-9/11 GI Bill. This is a choice that cannot be reversed.
• Having multiple periods of service may result in a potential entitlement of an additional 12 months. You can receive a maximum of 48 months of benefits under any combination of benefits. For example: if you qualify for both MGIB-AD and MGIB-SR, you can receive 36 months of entitlement at your MGIB-AD payment rate, and then an additional 12 months of entitlement at your MGIB-SR payment rate, up to the maximum total of 48 months.

To learn more about these options and help decide which GI Bill benefits to apply for, ask yourself the questions presented on the VA fact sheet titled Post-9/11 GI Bill: Factors to Consider – the link is available in Appendix D.

GI Bill Comparison Tool

There are so many opportunities, how do you evaluate your options? The GI Bill Comparison Tool (Figure 3-2) lets you learn about education programs and compare benefits by school. You can filter down to compare cost specifically to the type of GI Bill benefit you want to use.

![GI Bill Comparison Tool](Figure 3-2: GI Bill Comparison Tool)
Activity: Use GI Bill Comparison Tool

Access the GI Bill Comparison Tool from the Education Benefits website at www.benefits.va.gov/gibill.

Help your facilitator compare benefit options for a hypothetical Veteran—or try entering your own information into the GI Bill Comparison Tool and select the options that interest you. Then review and compare the results.

You can find steps and screenshots for this activity in Appendix C.

GI Bill Feedback Tool

www.benefits.va.gov/gibill/feedback.asp

The VA GI Bill Feedback Tool provides a platform to submit a concern or an issue about a school.

To submit a concern or issue, select the Submit Your Feedback Now button (Figure 3-3), and follow the instructions on each screen.

Note: This tool is not for submitting concerns or issues about VA.

VA reviews the following types of issues submitted through this tool:

- Recruiting/marketing practices
- Accreditation
- Financial issues (e.g., tuition/fee charges)
- Student loans
- Post-graduation job opportunities
- Change in degree plan/requirements
- Quality of education
- Grade policy
- Release of transcripts
- Transfer of credits
- Refund issues
- Other issues

If you have a question about your specific GI Bill benefits, you can click the FAQs button to learn more, or submit a question by clicking the Submit a Question button on the right-hand side of the page.

Applying for VA Education Benefits

Once you’ve completed your research and have all the information you need, you’ll be ready to apply for education benefits.

You can apply for GI Bill education benefits online, by mail, in person, or over the phone—the fastest way is online through eBenefits at www.ebenefits.va.gov.

There are other ways to apply:

- Call 1-888-GI BILL-1 (888-442-4551) to have the application mailed to you.
You can find detailed information about eligibility and how to apply for GI Bill benefits in Appendix A of this Participant Guide. In addition, a fact sheet showing step-by-step instructions is available in Appendix D.

VA Education Call Center

If you or a school certifying official ever have a question about your GI Bill education benefits, you can call the VA Education Call Center.

If you’re stateside, call the VA Education Call Center at 888-GIBILL-1 (888-442-4551) (7 a.m. to 6 p.m., Central Time, Monday through Friday).

From outside the U.S., call 001-918-781-5678 during business hours (7 a.m. to 6 p.m., Central Time, Monday through Friday). This is not a toll-free number, but you will be routed to the next available customer service representative.

On Campus Support

VetSuccess on Campus (VSOC)

VA’s Education and Career Counseling, or Chapter 36, benefit offers a wide range of free, personalized education and career counseling services to you and your eligible dependents. The VetSuccess on Campus, or VSOC, program makes career counseling benefits accessible at participating schools by placing professionally trained VA career counselors on many college campuses.

VSOC can help you get oriented into the campus environment and support your education goals. The program’s aim is to see you graduate, so you can go on to thrive in the career field and community of your choice.

Veterans Integration to Academic Leadership (VITAL)

https://www.mentalhealth.va.gov/studentveteran/vital.asp#sthash.kj1TAcU9.dpbs

The Veterans Integration to Academic Leadership (VITAL) program provides VA coordinators on some colleges and universities to help Veterans integrate into college and university life.

The VITAL program collaborates with your local VA Medical Center, the Veterans Benefits Administration, campus faculty and staff, and community resources to provide on-campus clinical care and coordination.

Additional Education Resources

Accessing Higher Education (AHE) Track

The Accessing Higher Education (AHE) track is an additional track in the Transition GPS curriculum, and it is your first step toward selecting the right school for you. This track focuses on topics like how to achieve academic success, how to research and compare institutions, and how to finance higher education. The track will lead you through the steps and provide a wealth of resources to help you become an informed education consumer and maximize the return on your GI Bill.

Career Technical Training Track (CTTT)

Like the AHE track, the Career Technical Training Track (CTTT) is an additional track in the Transition GPS curricula. Whether you want to use the skills you learned in the military or are looking to pursue a new challenge, the CTTT will give you the information you need to plan for career success. CTTT is designed to prepare you to enter the workforce quickly after separation. This two-day optional workshop will help you choose a field and target a position, identify required credentials, and select and apply for a technical training program. Be sure to contact your local TAP office to register for the class. We highly encourage spouse participation in this course.

Credentialing Opportunities On-Line (COOL)

www.afvec.langley.af.mil/afvec/Public/COOL
www.cool.army.mil
www.cool.navy.mil/usmc

The Air Force, Army, Marine Corps, and Navy have Credentialing Opportunities On-Line (COOL) programs. Using these tools, individuals can find information related to their military occupation, training, and career progression goals; and investigate equivalent civilian jobs, professional certifications, and professional organizations, along with certification funding opportunities.

Apprenticeships and On-the-Job Training

www.benefits.va.gov/gibill/onthejob_apprenticeship.asp

Both on-the-job (OTJ) and apprenticeship training programs are available for Veterans using their VA education benefits, including the Post-9/11 GI Bill. These programs allow Veterans to learn a trade or skill through training on the job rather than attending formal classroom instruction. A Veteran generally enters into a training contract for a specific period with an employer or union, and at the end of the training period, the Veteran gains job certification or journeyman status.

Employers generally pay a reduced OTJ/apprenticeship wage (must be at least 50% of journeyman wage). Unless the training establishment is operated by a federal, state, or local government, periodic wage increases must be granted and by the last full month of training, the wage must be at least 85% of the wage for a fully trained employee. Veterans in an approved program can use their GI Bill benefit and receive a tax-free stipend. The Post-9/11 GI Bill stipend is the equivalent to the Monthly Housing Allowance (MHA) of an E-5 with dependents, which is paid in addition to the entry-level wage.
DoD SkillBridge
www.dodskillbridge.com

The DoD SkillBridge initiative promotes the Civilian Job Training Authority available for transitioning Service members. Those who meet specific qualifications can participate in civilian job and employment training, including apprenticeships and internships. This training can take place starting up to six months prior to a Service member’s separation. The training must offer a high probability of employment and be provided to the Service member at little or no cost. Tremendous potential exists for Service members, companies, trade unions, and others to leverage this DoD authority.

VA Work-Study
https://www.benefits.va.gov/gibill/workstudy.asp

VA work-study programs may allow you to receive a work-study allowance (in addition to your education benefits) for performing certain types of VA-related work while enrolled in a college degree, vocational, or professional program. You must be attending at least three-quarter time, and your allowance is based on the number of hours of work you perform. Learn more at the link above.

As a Veteran, you can also apply for other government financial aid not provided by VA. Those aid programs will have their own requirements.

Research Employment Opportunities

VA for Vets

When it’s time to find a job, remember that VESO manages the VA for Vets program, because VA is interested in what you have to offer. VA values Veterans because they’re highly skilled and dedicated employees, and VA for Vets can help you find tools and resources to find a job at VA or at any Federal agency that interests you.

In fact, VA may have a program for you and your specific skillset. For example, if you served as a medic in your military job, you might be able to put your skills to work in a clinical setting immediately.

The Intermediate Care Technician (ICT) is a health care occupation in VA. ICTs are former military medics and corpsmen who work in VA clinical areas where there is a need for their skills.

Intermediate Care Technician (ICT) Program

ICTs are expected to function in a health care role commensurate with their military experience and training without the need for a license or additional credential.
ICTs bring a wealth of knowledge and expertise into the VA health care system. Some of the jobs they can immediately perform are starting an intravenous (IV) catheter into the external jugular vein, venipuncture, ear irrigation, splinting, suture removal, and so much more.

The ICT program has a career pathway for former medics and corpsmen who are interested in academic degrees leading to advanced professional clinical positions.

www.opm.gov/policy-data-oversight/veterans-services/vet-guide-for-hr-professionals

By law, Veterans who are disabled or who served on active duty during specific timeframes are entitled to preference over others in certain hiring and retention decisions.

Preference is also offered to certain widows and widowers of Veterans who died in service, spouses of service-connected disabled Veterans, and mothers of Veterans who died under honorable conditions on active duty or have permanent and total service-connected disabilities.

OPM Resources

OPM has partnered to build a great collection of online employment tools:

- FedsHireVets.gov is the preeminent source for Federal employment information for our Veterans, transitioning Service members, their families, Federal HR professionals and hiring managers. The goal is to provide consistent and accurate information and useful training and other resources in a way that will inform both the applicant and the hiring agency.

- There is a federal employment training module titled Transitioning to Federal Employment: A Guide. You can access this training module through your Joint Knowledge Online (JKO) account.

Department of Labor Employment Workshop (DOLEW)

To prepare you for today’s civilian job market, the DOLEW focuses on practical skills required to find and obtain civilian employment. DOLEW consists of four core focus areas:

Module 4: Finding a Place to Live

One of the most important things to plan is your housing. Some Service members may know where they will live after separation, some don’t. Still others are considering whether to rent, build, buy, or something else.

It might seem like a simple question, but at this stage of your journey (Figure 4-1), it’s important to ask yourself:

Where will I live?

It may not be as simple a question as it seems. Where you live will impact every other aspect of your life—your opportunities for education and employment, your housing budget, your access to health care, and more.

Whether you have a solid plan for where you will live or are still deciding, VA can help you to:

- Assess potential locations
- Secure housing
- Establish social and community connections
Comparing Locations – Influences

What is the number one most important factor you should consider when deciding where to live?

The truth is, we all have different priorities and different ideas about what is most important (Figure 4-2). And that’s how it should be, because your goals are based on your own personal circumstances. Consider factors that are most important to you personally—for example, maybe you want to be close to your parents, or maybe you’re planning to relocate near the college where you got accepted.

VA has resources to help you make this decision.

Cost of Living and Job Availability

If you don’t yet know where you will settle, it’s important to research the cost of living and the job market in the areas you are considering.

- What type of work do you want to do?
  - Are there available jobs in that industry in the area where you want to live?
  - What is the expected income for that type of job in the area?

- Consider your housing expenses.
  - What is the average cost of housing in the area?
  - Does it fall within your budget based on your estimated income?

- What are your personal goals and how may they impact your decision?
VA Facility Locators

VA has various facility locator tools to help you find the locations that offer VA benefits and services that meet your needs. This is something you might want to consider in deciding where to live.

Refer to Appendix B for a list of locator tools to find different types of VA facilities, like:

- Hospitals and clinics
- Regional Benefits Offices
- Regional Loan Centers

Activity: Use VA Facility Locator Tools

Take a few minutes to explore some VA facility locator tools on your own, based on services you think you may need. Your facilitator will demonstrate some of these tools.

To complete this activity:

- On your computer, go to www.va.gov.
- Select Hospitals & Clinics from the Locations drop-down menu on the right. Use the tool to search for hospitals, outpatient clinics, and Vet Centers near where you might live.
- Then select Locations Home from the left-hand menu to bring up the tool that allows you to search for multiple facility types. Use this tool to search for Regional Benefits Offices, Regional Loan Centers, or VA Cemetery locations, and more.
- If time allows, explore more options:
  - Explore additional options on the left-hand menu, including options to explore facilities by state.
  - Refer to Appendix B for additional websites to locate other facilities, such as VA Fisher Houses.
  - Access the VA facility locator from the eBenefits site. Go to www.ebenefits.va.gov. At the bottom of the page, select VA Facility Locator.
- When you find your VA medical center, Vet Center, VA Regional Office, and other key resources, write the information in the available spaces at the beginning of this guide.

You can find steps and screenshots for this activity in Appendix C.

Discovering Housing Options

No matter your situation, VA can help you explore housing options and secure a place to live. You can get help from a VHA provider to find housing, or take advantage of benefits like the home loan guaranty or housing grants—whatever path you take, VA is here to support you.
VA Home Loan Guaranty

www.benefits.va.gov/homeloans

VA helps Service members, Veterans, and eligible surviving spouses become homeowners. As part of its mission to serve you, VA provides a home loan guaranty benefit and other housing-related programs to help you buy, build, repair, retain, or adapt a home for your own personal occupancy (Figure 4-3).

Figure 4-3: VA Home Loan Guaranty Mission

The VA Home Loan Guaranty program can help you buy a home or refinance your existing mortgage. Loans are made by private lenders (banks and mortgage companies), and VA guarantees a portion of the loan, which allows lenders to provide favorable terms to you; for example, the lender may choose to waive the down payment.

This benefit requires the Service member or Veteran to pay a funding fee unless eligible for disability compensation. Funding fees may be reimbursed if you purchased your home after filing a disability compensation claim and your claim is approved. This benefit may be used more than once if specific criteria are met.

You can find detailed information about eligibility and how to apply for these benefits in Appendix A of this Participant Guide. In addition, links to detailed VA fact sheets are available in Appendix D.

You can use the VA Home Loan Guaranty to:

- Buy, build, repair, alter, renovate, or improve a home
- Refinance an existing home loan to reduce the interest rate
- Buy a manufactured (mobile) home and lot or buy and improve a lot for your existing manufactured home
- Refinance an existing loan on a manufactured home and purchase the lot to which the home will be affixed
- Improve a home by installing energy-efficient features like solar heating/cooling systems, water heater insulation, storm windows/doors, or other approved improvements
This is a lifetime benefit that can be used more than once. Some of the advantages of this program include:

- Little to no down payment
- Negotiable interest rates
- Limitations on closing costs
- No mortgage insurance premiums
- Fully assumable mortgages
- Long repayment terms
- Right to prepay without penalty
- Assistance for borrowers in default

You can find detailed information about eligibility and how to apply for these benefits in Appendix A of this Participant Guide. In addition, links to detailed VA fact sheets are available in Appendix D.

Getting a VA-Backed Home Loan

VA offers crucial information about things to consider when buying a home (Figure 4-4). To learn about home ownership costs and get information about buying and owning a home, visit www.benefits.va.gov/homeloans/resources_veteran.asp.

The process for obtaining a VA Home Loan Guaranty is not difficult. Review the six-step process below.
Step 1
Apply online for a Certificate of Eligibility (COE) at www.ebenefits.va.gov, or have your lender apply via WebLGY. Don’t print your COE until you are ready to apply for a loan, because printed certificates may expire for certain reasons.

Step 2
If you have not selected a lender, do so. Ensure the lender has your COE and complete the loan application.

Step 3
Decide on a home you want to buy, and sign a purchase agreement that contains a VA Option Clause. You may also want the purchase agreement to allow you to “escape” from the contract without penalty if you can’t get a VA loan.

Step 4
The lender will request that VA assign a licensed appraiser to determine the reasonable value for the property. A Notice of Value will be issued.

Step 5
The lender will let you know the decision on the loan. You should be approved if the property meets VA’s minimum property requirements; and the established value, your credit rating, and income are acceptable.

Step 6
Attend the loan closing. The lender or closing attorney will explain the loan terms and requirements, as well as where and how to make the monthly payments. All relevant papers are signed and you move in.

Note: At closing, you may have to pay a funding fee unless you’re eligible for VA disability compensation. If you filed a claim for VA disability compensation prior to discharge, remind your lender that you need to fill out VA Form 26-8937, Verification of VA Benefits, and submit it to VA. This will help determine if you are exempt from the funding fee. The fee may be paid in cash or included in your loan. If you file for disability prior to closing on your home, you may be able to get your funding fee refunded.

Predatory Lending Practices
Be aware of predatory lending practices. Some lenders have taken advantage of Service members and Veterans with home loans in the past. You might get mailers or calls with offers to refinance mortgages, and they may make some misleading claims. Many of these solicitations promise extremely low interest rates, thousands of dollars in cash back, skipped mortgage payments, and no out-of-pocket costs or waiting period. Be sure to research all offers you receive to make sure they are legitimate and that refinancing is in your best financial interest.
Foreclosure Resources

Veterans who have VA home loans have the lowest foreclosure rates in the country, because VA has resources to assist you.

If you are a borrower and want to contact the VA Loan Guaranty Office regarding any aspect of your mortgage, call 1-877-827-3702, or access the website: www.benefits.va.gov/HOMELOANS/contact_rlc_info.asp

VA Regional Loan Centers have technicians available to conduct financial counseling. This counseling is designed to help you avoid foreclosure. If you want this assistance, call 1-877-827-3702 to reach a Loan Service Representative.

Below is the link to six short videos that provide guidance on how to avoid foreclosure: www.benefits.va.gov/HOMELOANS/resources_video.asp#Anchor1

Mortgage delinquency assistance can be found in the fact sheet at the following location: www.benefits.va.gov/homeloans/documents/docs/foreclosure_avoidance_fact_sheet.pdf

Housing Grants

Earlier you learned that VA provides housing grants to Service members and Veterans with certain permanent and total service-connected disabilities (Table 4-1). These grants can be used to help purchase or construct an adapted home or modify an existing home to accommodate a disability.

You can find detailed information about eligibility and how to apply for these benefits in Appendix A of this Participant Guide. In addition, links to detailed VA fact sheets are available in Appendix D.

Remember, Veteran’s Mortgage Life Insurance (VMLI), is the type of life insurance that can protect your investment if you have a Specially Adapted Housing Grant and a mortgage on the home. Talk with your Specially Adapted Housing Agent about VMLI during the grant application and interview process.

Homeless Veterans Support

www.va.gov/homeless

VA is committed to ending Veteran homelessness. The focus of the Homeless Veterans Program is to:

- Conduct coordinated outreach to proactively seek out Veterans in need of assistance
- Connect homeless and at-risk Veterans with housing solutions, health care, community employment services, and other required support
- Collaborate with federal, state, and local agencies; employers; housing providers; faith-based and community nonprofits; and others to expand employment and affordable housing options for Veterans exiting homelessness

The National Call Center for Homeless Veterans hotline ensures that homeless Veterans or Veterans at risk for homelessness have free, 24/7 access to trained counselors (Figure 4-5). The hotline is intended to assist homeless Veterans and their families; VA medical centers; federal, state, and local partners; community agencies; service providers; and others in the community in finding needed resources and support for Veterans.

Call the hotline to connect with trained VA staff at 1-877-4AID-VET (1-877-424-3838).

Housing Resources for Homeless Veterans

Rental Assistance Vouchers

www.va.gov/homeless/hud-vash.asp

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development-VA Supportive Housing (HUD-VASH) provides rental assistance vouchers for privately owned housing to Veterans who are eligible for VA health care services and are experiencing homelessness.

Supportive Services for Veteran Families (SSVF)

www.va.gov/homeless/SSVF

Supportive Services for Veteran Families (SSVF) provides very low-income Veterans with case management and supportive services to prevent the loss of a Veteran’s home or identify a new, more suitable housing situation for the individual and their family. They can also rapidly re-house Veterans and their families who are homeless and might remain homeless without this assistance.

Homeless Providers Grant and Per Diem (GPD) Program

www.va.gov/homeless/gpd.asp

State, local, and tribal governments, and nonprofits receive capital grants and per diem payments to develop and operate transitional housing and/or service centers for Veterans who are homeless.

Enhanced Use Lease Program (EUL)

VA’s Enhanced-Use Lease program allows certain land and buildings to be used for supportive housing and related projects for homeless and at-risk Veterans.

EUL partners also often provide Veterans with job training, financial management, haircuts, computer and laundry facilities, fitness centers, and other services. Veterans and their families are prioritized for EUL developments, which are also convenient to VA health care facilities.

Domiciliary Care for Homeless Veterans (DCHV) Program

www.va.gov/homeless/dchv.asp

The Domiciliary Care for Homeless Veterans (DCHV) Program encompasses residential care for sheltered and unsheltered Veterans with multiple challenges, illnesses, or rehabilitative care needs. DCHV provides a structured setting to foster Veterans’ independence and mutual support.

Community Connections

State and Local Benefits

www.va.gov/statedva.htm
There may be various state, local, and commercial benefits available to you as a Service member or Veteran. In addition to state and local benefits, various commercial benefits may be available. For example, stores, airlines, and restaurants may offer Veteran discounts. It is always a good idea to mention you are a Veteran to see if there are any discounts available to you. As was mentioned earlier, eligibility may vary depending on disability status.

You can use the National Resource Directory (available at eBenefits and www.nrd.gov) to determine state services in your area. You can also discuss state and local resources with your Benefits Advisor during your one-on-one session, or contact your state Veterans Affairs office for more information.

Also, remember that your local Vet Center can help with outreach and education, and may offer events for Veterans in your community.

Activity: Explore the National Resource Directory (NRD)

The National Resource Directory (NRD) can be a valuable resource with financial help and information. It provides access to services and resources at the national, state, and local levels to support recovery, rehabilitation, and community reintegration.

For example, you can search by category for things like financial planning, day care, and many more. Using this site can save you and your family time and money. Visit the NRD at www.nrd.gov.

Go to www.nrd.gov and take some time to explore the directory on your own.

eBenefits

eBenefits can help you learn more or apply for housing benefits. Use eBenefits to:

- Download your COE as the first step to using the VA Home Loan Guaranty.
- Apply for the SAH or SHA housing grants by selecting Housing from the Apply menu.
- Learn more about state and local benefits at eBenefits.

Module 5: Maintaining Your Health

One of the most important things to consider when planning your transition is your overall health. Some of you may be in good health, and others may have varying degrees of service-connected disabilities. You need to think about how to take accountability for your health going forward.

So, at this stage of your journey (Figure 5-1), it’s a good time to ask yourself:

How will I maintain my health and that of my family?

VA can provide total health solutions to help you:

- Attend to your health care needs
- Take care of your mental health
- Manage your health care needs
- Find health care options for your family
Your Whole Health

VA and the Whole Health Approach

Often when you think of VA benefits, the first thing that comes to mind is VA health care. The VA health care system today is a vast and offers the full spectrum of traditional and specialty health care services.

VA takes a modern approach to health care with a focus on whole health. Whole health is a comprehensive, patient-centered approach that is rooted in forming continuous healing partnerships to help you achieve your greatest well-being.

Self-Care

Who plays the biggest role in maintaining your health—you or your care providers? Hint: It’s you. Self-care is at the core of the whole health approach. Review the eight areas of self-care (Figure 5-2) and begin to think about your own self-care in these terms.

Maintaining your health is critical to your long-term success. As you transition out of the military, it’s important to be proactive with your overall health. In the Service, maintaining your health was an expectation. Once you leave, your health care is more self-driven.

8 Areas of Self-Care

- Working Your Body
- Surroundings
- Personal Development
- Food and Drink
- Recharge
- Family, Friends, and Co-Workers
- Spirit and Soul
- Power of the Mind

Figure 5-2: Components of Proactive Health and Well-Being Personal Health Inventory
www.va.gov/PATIENTCENTEREDCARE/resources/personal-health-inventory.asp

Consider taking the MyStory: Personal Health Inventory. This self-assessment tool can help you explore areas of your life as it relates to your health. It takes about 30 minutes to complete and will help you assess your health and begin planning for your care.

Completing this assessment is a valuable first step toward helping you and your health care team start a conversation and begin to build a personalized health plan. This tool will ask you to consider things like:

- Are you getting enough sleep at night to refresh your body and mind?
- Are you eating foods and beverages that will nourish and fuel you?
- Are you surrounding yourself with people you love and care about?

To learn more about the MyStory: Personal Health Inventory, visit the link listed above.

Explore VA Health Care Options

- Preventive care, which includes periodic medical exams, preventive health screening, immunizations, routine vision testing and eye care services, and health education
- Specialty care, which includes services such as cardiology, diabetes and endocrinology, neurology, oncology, gynecology, optometry, mental health, and ophthalmology
- Patient-centered care teams, which provide accessible, coordinated, comprehensive, patient-aligned care and are managed by primary care providers with the active involvement of other staff, including nurses, mental health providers, dietitians, and Social Workers

Comprehensive VA health care benefits include all the necessary inpatient hospital care and outpatient services to promote, preserve, or restore a Veteran's health. VA operates the largest integrated health care system in the nation, including more than 1,700 facilities—hospitals, community-based outpatient clinics, residential care facilities, rehabilitation centers, readjustment and counseling centers, and other facilities.

A grant of service connection for any injury or illness, even those rated at 0 percent, entitles you to no-cost VA medical treatment, including required medication and supplies for those granted conditions.
Primary Care

https://www.patientcare.va.gov/primarycare/index.asp

Primary Care gives eligible Veterans easy access to health care professionals familiar with their needs. This benefit promotes team-based, patient-centered care, focusing on a personalized, integrated, comprehensive, and coordinated approach to health care.

Primary Care also helps develop and evaluate innovative programs used in the Patient Aligned Care Team (PACT) model. PACTs are built around the idea of whole health and team-based care. PACTs involve each Veteran working together with health care professionals to plan for whole-person care, and life-long health and wellness. PACTs (Figure 5-3) focus on:

- Building partnerships with Veterans
- Creating access to care using multiple methods (secure messaging, office visits, educational seminars, etc.)
- Coordinating care by collaborating with team members
- Keeping team-based care with Veterans at the center of the program

Specialty Care

https://www.va.gov/healthbenefits/access/specialty_care_services.asp

VA offers specialized health care services to certain groups. Specialty care encompasses all specialty fields like dermatology, oncology, cardiology, podiatry, and others.

VA has other specialty programs like Gender-Specific Care, Complex Care, Foreign Medical Care, and Homeless Services.

Gender-Specific Care

Gender-Specific Care provides specialized care for men and women, who experience many of the same diseases, but in different ways.

Women Veterans Health Care

www.womenshealth.va.gov

Women Veterans health care addresses the unique health care needs of women Veterans and works to ensure that timely, equitable, high-quality, comprehensive health care services are provided in a sensitive and safe environment at VA facilities nationwide. VA strives to be a national leader in the provision of health care for women, raising the standard of care for all women.

To fulfill this mission, women Veterans’ health care works to make certain that all eligible women Veterans requesting VA care are assured of:

- Comprehensive primary care by a proficient and interested primary care provider
- Privacy, safety, dignity, and sensitivity to gender-specific needs
- The right care at the right place and time
- State-of-the-art health care equipment and technology
- High-quality preventive and clinical care, equal to that provided to male Veterans

A full continuum of health care, including comprehensive primary care (care for acute and chronic illness and gender-specific care), specialty care, mental health care, disease prevention and screening, emergency care, and women’s health specialty care (e.g., advanced breast and gynecological care, maternity care, and some infertility treatments), is available at every VA medical facility.

For more information, call 1-855-VAWOMEN (Figure 5-4).

Note: If you or your spouse are pregnant at the time of transition, you may be eligible to extend your in-service health care benefits through six weeks post-delivery. You should contact your DoD counselor for more information.
Complex Care Coordination
https://www.patientcare.va.gov/primarycare/pact/Coordination.asp

Complex Care Coordination provides a Care Management Team to Veterans that live with complex medical or health issues, including but not limited to:

- Polytrauma
- Spinal cord disorders
- Blindness
- Amputations
- Cognitive, psychological, and emotional disorders

Service members and Veterans who meet criteria for complex care coordination will have a Care Management Team, including an assigned lead coordinator, to serve as the primary point of contact to establish and update an Interagency Comprehensive Plan and to facilitate care, benefits, services, and transfers across facilities.

Dental Care
https://www.va.gov/dental/

VA dental services are provided for Veterans and range from simple to complex care. Eligibility isn’t the same as for other VA medical benefits, and is categorized into different classes. If you qualify for VA dental care benefits, you may be able to get some or all of your dental care through VA.
You may be entitled to a one-time free dental exam if:

- You served in active duty for 90 days or more, AND
- Your DD Form 214 does not show that you received a complete dental examination and all appropriate dental care prior to your separation, AND
- You apply to VA for this free dental care within 180 days (6 months) after discharge.

VA provides dental care to Veterans who meet certain eligibility requirements. Covered services may include cleaning and x-rays, fillings, crowns, bridges, and more.

Note: If you experienced “dental trauma” while in on active duty status, you may be eligible for lifelong dental care associated with this trauma and receive a service-connected disability.

If you don’t meet any of these criteria, you may be able to buy dental insurance.

VA Dental Insurance Program

www.va.gov/healthbenefits/vadip

We offer all eligible Veterans and family members the opportunity to purchase dental insurance at reduced cost through the VA Dental Insurance Program (VADIP). VA has implemented a comprehensive national program to give enrolled Veterans and beneficiaries of the Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Department of Veterans Affairs (CHAMPVA) the opportunity to purchase dental insurance through Delta Dental and MetLife at a reduced cost. Participation is voluntary. Purchasing a dental plan does not affect a Veteran’s eligibility for VA dental services and treatment.

Covered services include diagnostic, preventive, surgical, emergency, and endodontic/restorative treatment. Each participant pays the fixed monthly premiums for coverage and any copayments required, depending on the type of plan selected.

Prescription Services

www.va.gov/healthbenefits/access/prescriptions.asp

VA runs a national mail-order pharmacy for prescriptions. All Veterans using VA health care will have access to VA pharmacy services for medications ordered by their VA providers. Copays may apply. Your prescription refills can be managed on My HealtheVet (www.myhealth.va.gov).

Telehealth

www.telehealth.va.gov

Telehealth helps VA provide clinical care in circumstances where distance separates you from your care team. Telehealth allows your provider to monitor your condition remotely using home monitoring equipment.
Other Care Programs

Homeless Veterans Support

www.va.gov/homeless

Veterans who might not otherwise qualify for VA health care benefits may be eligible for homeless services.

The National Call Center for Homeless Veterans hotline ensures that homeless Veterans or Veterans at risk for homelessness have free, 24/7 access to trained counselors. The hotline is intended to assist homeless Veterans and their families; VA medical centers; federal, state, and local partners; community agencies; service providers; and others in the community in finding needed resources and support for Veterans. Call the hotline (Figure 5-5) to connect with trained VA staff at 1-877-4AID-VET (1-877-424-3838).

Foreign Medical Program

www.va.gov/communitycare/programs/veterans/fmp

The Foreign Medical Program enables Veterans living or traveling outside of the U.S. to receive reimbursement for medical services for service-connected disabilities or any disability associated with and found to be aggravating a service-connected disability.

This program may also reimburse for foreign medical services needed as part of an approved VA vocational rehabilitation program.

For more information, visit the link above or contact the Foreign Medical Program office.

Transition and Care Management

www.oefoif.va.gov/caremanagement.asp

The Transition and Care Management (TCM) team at your home VA medical center can assist you in connecting with the appropriate VA health care and resources as needed to help ease your transition from active duty to Veteran status.

The TCM program provides the following services.

- System navigation: TCM teams at each medical center are ready to welcome you into the VA health care system as your guide.
- Access to VA health care: TCM teams assist you in fully registering for VA health care and scheduling your initial appointments.
- Case management: TCM Case Managers speak with you about your individual needs and discuss whether you could benefit from case management.
- Linkage to community resources: TCM teams connect you with local community services and resources that may provide you additional assistance.
- VA care and benefits assistance: TCM Case Managers work with you to ensure you maximize your VA health care benefits and services.

Your Emotional Wellness

www.mentalhealth.va.gov

Your emotional wellness is a significant part of caring for your whole health. It is about the state of your emotional well-being, and it affects your life every day in how you think, feel, and act.

Since the brain and body affect one another, problems in your emotional state can cause physical problems, along with changes in thinking, feeling, and behavior. In addition to commonly recognized emotional symptoms, like feeling very sad or nervous, other indicators and signs may include:

- Changes in sleep, appetite, weight, or sex life
- Headaches or other physical pain
- Muscle tension and weakness
- Decreased energy, motivation, or interest
- Problems with attention, concentration, or memory
- Irritability, anger, or having a “short temper”
- Feelings of guilt, worthlessness, helplessness, or hopelessness
• Unhealthy behaviors (misusing drugs, alcohol, food, or sex; or other behaviors like gambling or spending too much money to cope with stress or emotions)
• Problems functioning at home, work, or school

Your emotional well-being is especially important considering the growing number of Veterans diagnosed with depression and the issue of suicide. VA believes every Veteran suicide is a tragic outcome. Regardless of the numbers or rates, one Veteran suicide is one too many. And because suicide prevention is everyone’s responsibility, VA takes this issue to heart.

VA recently began offering one year of post-transition mental health care, regardless of whether you are eligible for VA health care. You might also find support in your local community or faith-based organization, regardless of denomination. If your community or faith-based organization is not familiar with services for Veterans, families, and survivors, they can contact the Center for Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships to learn more. (https://www.va.gov/cfbnpartnerships/)

Vet Centers

www.vetcenter.va.gov

Vet Centers are community-based centers that offer readjustment counseling in a safe and confidential environment to you and your family.

A core goal of Vet Centers is to promote access to care by helping you and your family overcome any barrier you might be experiencing. For example, all Vet Centers have evening and Saturday hours to accommodate your busy schedule. In addition, over 70% of Vet Center staff are Veterans, the majority of whom served in combat theaters. Some communities even have mobile Vet Centers (Figure 5-6) that travel to places where there is no permanent local Vet Center.

Vet Center Readjustment Counseling Centers offer readjustment counseling and a wide range of psychosocial services so you can make successful transitions from military to civilian life. The list of services includes the following:

- Individual and group counseling for Veterans, Service members, and their families
- Family and marriage counseling for military related issues
- Bereavement counseling for families who experience an active duty death
- Counseling and referral for those who experience a military sexual trauma
- Outreach and education including Post-Deployment Health Reassessment Program, community events, etc.
- Substance abuse assessment and referral
- Employment assessment and referral
- VA benefits explanation and referral
- Screening and referral for medical issues including traumatic brain injury, depression, etc.

All Vet Center services are available without time limitation and at no cost. To use Vet Center services:

- You do not need to be registered with the Department of Veteran Affairs (VA) Medical Centers.
- You do not need a disability rating or service connection for injuries from either the VA or the Department of Defense.
- You can access Vet Center services regardless of discharge character, to include dishonorable discharges.

Vet Center staff maintain the strictest levels of confidentiality. No information will be released to any person or agency without the written consent from the Veteran or Service member, except in circumstances averting a crisis.

You can call 1-877-927-8387 (WAR-VETS) 24 hours a day, toll free, to talk to another combat Veteran or spouse about your military experience, your transition home, or to get connected to a Vet Center.

How VA Mental Health Can Help

www.socialwork.va.gov

Social workers are an invaluable resource and vital team members. They may provide counseling, therapy, supportive services, and case management. If you have questions or problems, a social worker will be able to help you or can refer you to the right person for help.

Social workers provide a variety of services within the VA system and the community, including:

- Information linkage and referral
- Discharge planning
- Caregiver information, resources, and support
• Outreach to homeless Veterans
• Counseling and psychotherapy
• Intimate partner violence assistance and resources
• Case management
• Financial assistance referral
• Housing and community living options
• Assessment and treatment of substance abuse problems
• Advance directives, mental health preferences, and long-term planning

Other Programs and Resources

VA has specific programs in place to help Veterans with emotional wellness-related issues.

Mobile Apps

VA also provides helpful resources at its online app store at mobile.va.gov/appstore. More than 40 apps are available at the site including:

• Mindfulness Coach: mobile.va.gov/app/mindfulness-coach
• PTSD Coach: mobile.va.gov/app/ptsd-coach

Veterans Crisis Line

www.veteranscrisisline.net

The Veterans Crisis Line connects you and your family to qualified, caring, and supportive VA representatives who are specially trained and experienced in helping Veterans of all ages and circumstances. Counselors can be contacted to offer support 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year:

• Call the confidential, toll-free hotline at 1-800-273-8255 and press 1.
• Send a text message to 838255.
• Chat online by clicking the Chat Online link on the homepage.
Difficult experiences can be harder to cope with when it feels like no one, not even family or friends, understands what you went through. Connecting with other Veterans and reaching out for support can help to overcome isolation and increase enjoyment of life.

The Make the Connection program (Figure 5-7) provides support for PTSD, preparing for deployment, and transitioning from the service. There are also resources for self-help strategies, and self-assessments including screening for depression, PTSD, and alcohol or substance abuse.
About Face

www.ptsd.va.gov/apps/AboutFace/

About Face (Figure 5-8) is a web-based public awareness campaign to help recognize PTSD and motivate Veterans to seek evidence-based care. It features personal stories of Veterans and is designed to improve mental health treatment engagement among those with PTSD.

!About Face Website

VA Substance Abuse Programs

VA substance abuse programs are available to help those struggling with addiction. The My HealtheVet portal has a screening tool that can help you determine if you need support. The tool is anonymous, confidential, and gives you immediate results. You can also speak with your existing VA health care provider, contact the Transition and Care Management Program Manager at your local VA Medical Center, contact your local Vet Center, or call VA’s general information hotline if you have concerns about substance abuse.
Intimate Partner Violence (IPV)

www.patientcare.va.gov/ipv/Intimate_Partner_Violence_IPV.asp

Intimate partner violence (IPV) is a serious, preventable public health problem that affects millions of Americans. “Intimate partner violence" describes physical, sexual, or psychological harm by a current or former partner or spouse. This type of violence can occur among heterosexual or same-sex couples and does not require sexual intimacy. If you are concerned for your safety, you can talk to the Intimate Partner Violence Coordinator at your VA, or talk to any of your VA providers about IPV or any safety concerns.

National Domestic Violence Hotline

1-800-799-7233 or chat at www.thehotline.org

The VA Intimate Partner Violence Assistance Program partners with the National Domestic Violence Hotline to offer additional outreach, resources, and safety planning for Veterans and their intimate partners. Hotline advocates are available to chat every day.

National Alliance on Mental Illness

www.nami.org

The National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) is a community resource for family members of individuals affected by mental illness who may need support and education.

Coping with Traumatic Events

One of the most helpful coping strategies for people living with mental conditions is therapy or counseling. Whether it’s on an individual basis or in a group setting, VA makes these services available to you. VA also partners with Chaplain Services to provide faith-based counseling for mental health, grief and loss, and conflict resolution.

Military Sexual Trauma

www.mentalhealth.va.gov/msthome.asp

Military sexual trauma (MST) is the term VA uses to refer to sexual assault or repeated, threatening sexual harassment that occurred while the Veteran was in the military. It includes any sexual activity in which someone is involved against his or her will. He or she may have been pressured into sexual activities (for example, with threats of negative consequences for refusing to be sexually cooperative or with implied faster promotions or better treatment in exchange for sex), may have been unable to consent to sexual activities (for example, when intoxicated), or may have been physically forced into sexual activities. Other experiences that fall into the category of MST include unwanted sexual touching or grabbing; threatening, offensive remarks about a person’s body or sexual activities; and threatening or unwelcome sexual advances.
Both women and men can experience MST during their service. All Veterans seen at Veterans Health Administration facilities are asked about experiences of sexual trauma, because we know that any type of trauma can affect a person’s physical and mental health—even many years later. We also know that people can recover from trauma. VA has free services to help Veterans do this. You do not need to have a VA disability rating (be “service-connected”) to receive these services, and you may be able to receive services even if you are not eligible for other forms of VA health care.

Free MST-related care is available for both male and female Veterans at every VA health care facility and Vet Center. In addition, Veterans may apply for disability compensation from physical or psychological disabilities related to sexual or other trauma.

Eligibility for MST-related health care is independent of receipt of other VA benefits. There are no length-of-service or income requirements to receive MST-related care. Veterans do not need to have reported the incident(s) when they happened or have other documentation that they occurred.

For help with treatment and health care related to experiences of MST, please contact your local VA Medical Center and ask to speak to the MST Coordinator, or use the link above.

For help with disability compensation related to MST, please contact the MST Coordinator at your local Veterans Benefits Administration Regional Office, or use the link above.

Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder

www.ptsd.va.gov

Post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) can occur after you have been through a traumatic event, but may not surface until months or years later. A traumatic event is something overwhelming and hard to cope with or move past that you see, that you hear about, or that happens to you, such as:

- Combat exposure
- Child sexual or physical abuse
- Terrorist attack
- Sexual or physical assault
- Motor vehicle accidents
- Natural disasters such as a fire, tornado, hurricane, flood, or earthquake

During a traumatic event, you may think your life or others’ lives are in danger. You may feel afraid or feel like you have no control over what is happening around you. Most people have some stress-related reactions after a traumatic event, but not everyone gets PTSD. If your reactions don’t go away over time and they disrupt your life, you may have PTSD.

Make an Informed Decision

Part of making an informed decision about VA health care is knowing how to apply. Did you know that 26% of Veterans say they don’t know how to apply for VA health benefits?

While not everyone is eligible, we encourage you to apply for VA health care even before you separate. Why? Maybe you think you have a job lined up that will provide health insurance for you. But what if it falls through? And you should know that unlike private coverage, there are no monthly premiums. You may have to pay a copay, but that’s it. VA health care can help you meet all your medical needs – you don’t have to have a service-connected condition to be eligible.

Information about how VA health care works with other types of coverage can help you make an informed decision (Table 5-2).

If you aren’t ready to make a decision today, there are various resources, other than your Benefits Advisor, available to support you. You’re not on your own to find information about VA health care benefits and the registration process. The Health Benefits Explorer can help, but we also have Concierge for Care (C4C), which helps you build a relationship with VA early on and make your transition from active duty health care to Veteran health care easier than ever before. Our goal is for you to have the information you need to make informed decisions about your post-separation health care options. Under C4C:

- A registration representative will contact you as you prepare for military separation to provide information regarding VA health care benefits and to answer any questions you may have.
- Once you’ve transitioned, a representative will contact you by telephone to answer any additional questions you may have and, if you’re interested, assist you in applying for VA health care registration.
- The representative also can help you make your first VA medical appointment.

The C4C program was designed to make your Veteran health care transition easier, but it only works if VA has your correct contact information. Because your military telephone number and email address... don’t follow you after separation, it is important that you provide VA with your personal telephone number and email address. Updates to your contact information can be made through the eBenefits website at www.ebenefits.va.gov. Your information will not be shared with other businesses and VA makes every effort to ensure you are contacted only regarding your important VA benefits and services.

And remember, another resource is your TCM team or VA health care liaison. If you have further questions about your health care options, you can call 1-877-222-8387 for assistance.

VA Health Care Facilities

https://www.va.gov/directory/guide/home.asp

There are many VA health care facilities located across the U.S. that offer a wide range of services, such as basic or preventive care and traditional hospital-based services (for example, surgery, critical care, women’s health care, and emotional well-being programs).

Use the VA locator tools to locate outpatient clinics, hospitals, and Vet centers near you.

- To access the VA locator tools, go to va.gov, select Hospitals & Clinics from the Locations menu to search for hospitals, outpatient clinics, and Vet Centers.
- From there, select Facilities by State or Interactive US Map from the left-hand menu to view different facilities by state.

Types of Health Care Facilities

There are many types of VA health care facilities.

- VA Medical Centers are located throughout the nation. They offer a wide range of services such as basic or preventive care and traditional hospital-based services, such as surgery, critical care, and emotional well-being programs.

- Community-based Outpatient Clinics (CBOCs) bring access to care closer to home and offer the most common outpatient services, including health and wellness visits.

- Residential Care Facilities, or domiciliary care facilities, provide residential treatment and rehabilitative services to eligible Veterans who have a wide range of concerns, illnesses, or rehabilitative care needs. These can include mental health disorders; substance use disorders; post-traumatic stress disorder; homelessness; and vocational, educational, or social issues.
- Community Living Centers for short- and long-term nursing home care are available for Veterans whose needs no longer require acute hospitalization. The focus is on restoring or maintaining the highest degree of functional independence possible. Although some Veterans can receive indefinite Community Living Center services, others may qualify for a limited period. Among those who automatically qualify for indefinite community living care are Veterans whose service-connected conditions are clinically determined to require nursing home care and Veterans who have a service-connected disability rating of 70% or more and are unemployable.

A copay may be charged for Community Living Center care based on your VA service-connected disability status and financial information. Contact your VA social worker or case manager to complete VA Form 10-10EC—Application for Extended Care Benefits to determine the cost of your copay. This form can be found at www.va.gov/vaforms/medical/pdf/vha-10-10EC-fill.pdf.

VA Care in the Community
www.benefits.gov/benefits/benefit-details/322

The Veteran Choice Program may allow VA to authorize a non-VA health care facility to provide necessary medical care services when such services are not feasibly available at a VA health care facility, or when it is determined that such services can be obtained outside the VA more economically or more appropriately due to geographic inaccessibility.

VA community care must be authorized by VA in advance, unless the medical event is an emergency. Emergency events may be reimbursed on behalf of the Veteran in certain cases.

To participate, you must be registered for the VA health care system (or qualify based on one of the exceptions in the law) and have a character of discharge or service under conditions other than dishonorable. However, individuals receiving undesirable, bad conduct, and other types of dishonorable discharges may qualify for VA benefits depending on a determination made by VA.

To inquire about authorized hospital care and medical services in non-VA health care facilities, contact your nearest VA health care facility or call 1-877-222-8387.

Family Support

Fisher House Program
www.socialwork.va.gov/fisher.asp

The Fisher House Program is another example of how VA links you to your community’s resources. Fisher House has a network of comfortable homes where Service members’ and Veterans’ families can stay at no cost while a loved one is receiving treatment. Fisher House is “a home away from home” for families and caregivers of Veterans and Active Duty Military receiving treatment at major military and VA medical facilities. Fisher Houses have up to 21 suites, with private bedrooms and baths.
If you’re interested in Fisher House locations, go to the link above and select Fisher House Locations from the left-hand menu. From there, you can view the locations of Fisher Houses in each state. Knowing where Fisher Houses are located may help you determine where you and your family may be able to stay while you are receiving care from VA.

Family Caregiver Support Program

www.caregiver.va.gov/Care_Caregivers.asp

The Family Caregiver Support Program provides support and assistance to caregivers of post-9/11 Veterans being medically discharged. Eligible primary family caregivers can receive a stipend, training, mental health services, travel and lodging reimbursement, and access to health insurance if they are not already under a health care plan.

The Caregiver Support website is designed to provide you with a wealth of information, tools, and resources on family caregiving. The program also offers services to help you succeed, including:

- Education resources, like self-care activities and tips on staying organized
- Medication logs
- Crisis Symptom Reporting Guide
- Self-Care Assessment
- Daily Attention Diary
- VHA Intimate Partner Violence Assistance Program

VA also provides financial support for Service members and Veterans recovering from severe injuries through the TSGLI program. Some Service members and Veterans are eligible for both TSGLI and the Family Caregiver Support Program.

More information can be obtained from a Caregiver Support Coordinator at the nearest VA health care facility or by calling 1-855-260-3274.

My HealtheVet

www.myhealth.va.gov

My HealtheVet (Figure 5-13) is VA’s award-winning e-health website that offers Veterans, active duty Service members, their dependents, and caregivers access to VA health care information and services. It is a free online Personal Health Record that empowers Veterans to become informed partners in their health care.
VA also has a mobile app to help maintain your health. Find the My VA Health app at mobile.va.gov/app/my-va-health.

Levels of Access

My HealtheVet offers three account types: Basic, Advanced, and Premium.

Basic Account: Anyone who registers on My HealtheVet starts with a Basic account. A Basic account limits your access to features requiring you to enter personal data, such as journals and other tools to track your health measures.

Advanced Account: This account is for those who register as Veterans and/or VA Patients. It provides a higher level of access to features offered in My HealtheVet, and you can view some information in your VA and/or DoD records. With this type of account, you can refill and track your prescriptions, and view your allergies and their adverse reactions.

Premium Account: This account is only for Veterans and/or VA Patients and gives users the highest level of access to My HealtheVet features. In addition to the features of advanced level access, you also get access to things like admissions and discharge summaries, past and future appointments, lab results and medication history, secure messaging with your health care team, and more. You must first have a Basic account before you are eligible for a premium account.
There is no cost to upgrade to an advanced or a premium account, but you must meet the requirements and complete the necessary documents.

Activity: Register for a My HealtheVet Account

Take a few moments now to register for a My HealtheVet Basic account. You can find steps and screenshots for this activity in Appendix C.

Navigate to www.myhealth.va.gov and click the Register button. Complete the required fields, then click the Create Your Account button.

After you have registered for a My HealtheVet account as a Veteran or a VA Patient, your profile is linked to VA/DoD records and you are automatically upgraded to the advanced level. An advanced account entitles you to additional features such as:

- VA Prescription Refill
- VA Prescription Tracker
- VA Allergies

As an advanced account member, you are eligible for, and may want to upgrade to a premium account. A premium account gives you access to the features of a basic and an advanced account with the addition of the following:

- VA Health Summary
- Secure messaging
- VA appointments
- DoD military service information

Once you have been upgraded to an advanced account, the Authorize VA to Release Electronic Copies of Your VA Record page appears in your account, and you have the option to upgrade to a premium account.
To upgrade to a premium account, you will need to complete a VA Release of Information Form (10-5345a-MHV) using one of the following options.

- Select the By Mail radio button to download a PDF version of the VA Release of Information Form.
- Call a local VA health care facility to have the VA Release of Information Form mailed to you.

Once you have received the form and completed the information, you may mail it to a local VA health care facility, Attention: Release of Information Office, or you may bring the form with you on your next visit to the local VA health care facility. If you are delivering the form in person, make sure to bring a government-issued photo ID (Veteran’s Identification Card or valid driver’s license) to prove your identity.

For more information, navigate to www.myhealth.va.gov.

eBenefits

www.ebenefits.va.gov

Remember to use eBenefits to keep you and your health care team up to date. One way to do this is to share your VA health care records by signing up for Connect Your Docs. This service allows you to securely share your electronic health records with your participating community doctors, nurses, pharmacists and other health care providers—when they are needed—for your routine office visits and medical emergencies.

Benefits of this service include:

- Fewer repeated tests
- Improved health care safety
- Improved quality of care
- Privacy protection using advanced security

To register for this service, you must be an eBenefits Premium account holder. Follow the steps below:

1. Select Health Care from the Manage menu.
2. Select Health Records Sharing from the Health Records section.
3. Select the Login to Manage My Authorizations and Preferences button (Figure 5-14).
4. Sign the form using your DS Logon credentials.

Module 6: Connecting with Your Community

In this course, you’ve learned about several benefits, tools, and resources available to you as you transition to civilian life. As you know, all resources are listed in this guide, but you may be wondering what ongoing support is available to you after transition and after taking care of your living situation, career, and health.

At this final step in your journey (Figure 6-1), you might be asking:

Where will my support come from?

VA can help you identify and connect with resources that:

- Address your social and emotional health
- Establish social and community connections

Connecting with Your Community

At this point you might be asking yourself, how will I stay connected in my community? So, let’s recap how VA can support you and your family, caregivers, and survivors using resources we pointed out during this course (Table 6-1).

Activity: Update Your Personal Information in eBenefits

Knowing how important it is to keep your personal information updated in eBenefits, we’ll look at how you update information in eBenefits (Figure 6-2).

Log in to eBenefits: www.ebenefits.va.gov.

You need Premium access to log in. If you haven’t already, take a few minutes to refer to the My HealtheVet section of this Participant Guide for detailed information on how you can upgrade your account to Premium access. By beginning the upgrade process now, you won’t have to worry about that later. Although you don’t need to update personal information now, it’s good to know how easy it is to do it.

Look at the home page to see where you might go to update your personal information. Under the Manage Benefits section, select the Personal Contact and Direct Deposit link.

One thing that is critical for you to do is change your email address from your .mil address when you separate, since you won’t have access to that email address anymore. When you turn in your CAC ID, make sure to come back to eBenefits and update your email address to one you check regularly.

You can find steps and screenshots for this activity in Appendix C.

Face-to-Face Resources for Ongoing Support

You’ve got important online resources that can help you throughout all the phases of your transition. But you’re not on your own—you’ve also got face-to-face support as well. You can reach to your VA Benefits I and II facilitator, your local Benefits Advisor, or one of the many other organizations available in your community to help with benefits or offer other support.

- VSOs can not only help you file your disability compensation claim, but they also help with survivor benefits, pension, health care, education, vocational rehabilitation and employment, home loans, life insurance, and burial benefits. There are many VSOs across the country that can help you fill out VA forms, tell you about VA benefits, and provide other forms of assistance.

- Veteran Peer Groups like SVA, Team RWB, Team Rubicon, and The Mission Continues can help you reintegrate into civilian life and find ways to continue serving your community.

There may be representatives from organizations like these in your classroom today. Your facilitator will provide an opportunity to greet them after class.

Title 32

Effective Oct. 1, 2011, VA began paying benefits to members of the Army National Guard and Air National Guard based on qualifying service under Title 32. Payments may be made retroactively for enrollment(s) at an approved educational institution for attendance on or after Aug. 1, 2009. The following service may qualify:

- Full-time service in the National Guard for the purpose of organizing, administering, recruiting, instructing, or training
- Activations in support of a national emergency under Section 502(f) of Title 32

If individuals affected by these changes were previously using the Post-9/11 GI Bill, they will be paid for any additional benefits they would have been entitled to because of a higher benefit level.

Apply/Access

To apply for Post-9/11 GI Bill education benefits:

- Apply online at eBenefits.
- Complete VA Form 22-1990, Application for VA Education Benefits. Mail the application or drop it off in person at your nearest VA Regional Office. The application can be found on www.va.gov.
- Call VA toll-free at 1-800-827-1000.

Tuition and Fees

Eligible active duty Service members, Veterans, and transferees can receive compensation for full tuition and fees at public, in-state schools. These benefits are paid directly to the school by VA on the student’s behalf.

For those attending private or foreign schools, compensation for tuition and fees is capped at the national maximum rate. Information on the Post-9/11 GI Bill rates for each year can be found at:

Yellow Ribbon Program

The Post-9/11 GI Bill will pay you:

- All resident tuition and fees for a public school
- The lower of the actual tuition and fees or the national maximum per academic year for a private school
Your actual tuition and fees costs may exceed these amounts if you are attending a private school or are attending a public school as a nonresident student.

Degree-granting institutions of higher learning participating in the Post-9/11 GI Bill Yellow Ribbon Program agree to make additional funds available for your education program without an additional charge to your GI Bill entitlement. These institutions voluntarily enter into a Yellow Ribbon Agreement with VA and choose the amount of tuition and fees that will be contributed. VA matches that amount and issues payments directly to the institution.

Only Veterans entitled to the 100% benefit rate (based on service requirements) or their designated transferees may receive this funding. Active duty Service members and their spouses are not eligible for this program. Child transferees of active duty Service members may be eligible if the Service member is qualified at the 100% rate.

A list of institutions that participate in the Yellow Ribbon Program can be found online at www.benefits.va.gov/gibill/yellow_ribbon.asp under “How Will I Know if My School is Participating in the Yellow Ribbon Program?”

Books and Supplies Stipend

This payment is issued directly to the student when the school certifies and VA processes the enrollment. The benefit is prorated based on length of service and number of credits/hours pursued. This benefit is also available if you are enrolled in a non-college degree, an apprenticeship, or an on-the-job training program.

Monthly Housing Allowance

Based on the length of active duty service, eligible participants are entitled to receive a percentage of the monthly housing allowance equal to the military Basic Allowance for Housing (BAH) payable to an E-5 with dependents for the ZIP code of the primary location of the school. This is paid directly to the student. The housing allowance is not payable to individuals on active duty, their spouses, or to those pursuing training at half time or less. Distance learners receive half the BAH national average.

Transfer of Entitlement

The transferability option under the Post-9/11 GI Bill allows Service members to transfer all or some unused benefits to their eligible spouse or dependent children. Benefits must be transferred while you are still a member of the armed forces (including Selected Reserve). The DoD or the Department of Homeland Security (depending on your branch of service) determines whether you can transfer benefits to your family.

Each service has its own rules about a Service member’s eligibility for this program. This is a DoD retention tool and you may incur additional service obligation.
If you choose to transfer at least one month to your eligible dependents before leaving military service, the dependent may be eligible to receive additional months of entitlement.

To apply for benefits under this program, eligible dependents must complete and submit VA Form 22-1990e, Application of a Family Member to Use Transferred Benefits, online at www.benefits.va.gov/gibill/post911_transfer.asp.

Tutorial Assistance

Tutorial assistance is available for students who are receiving VA educational assistance through the Post-9/11 GI Bill, Montgomery GI Bill (MGIB), or Survivors’ and Dependents’ Educational Assistance at the half-time or higher rate, and have a deficiency in a subject that makes tutoring necessary. To apply, complete VA Form 22-1990t, Application for Individualized Tutorial Assistance. The school certifying official and the tutor must sign the form.

Montgomery GI Bill – Active Duty (MGIB-AD)

www.benefits.va.gov/gibill/mgib_ad.asp

Description

The MGIB-AD (or Chapter 30) benefit provides up to 36 months of educational benefits for college; business, technical, or vocational school; degree or certificate programs; apprenticeship and on-the-job training; and correspondence courses. In special circumstances, some remedial and refresher courses and flight training may be approved. Veterans have 10 years from their last date of discharge from active duty to use MGIB-AD. Payments are made directly to the student.

This education assistance program may be used for degree programs, certificate or correspondence courses, cooperative training, independent study programs, apprenticeship and on-the-job training, and vocational flight training programs. Remedial, refresher, and deficiency training are available under certain circumstances.

www.benefits.va.gov/homeloans/adaptedhousing.asp

Description
SAH Grants provide financial resources to Veterans for home modifications to make their place of residence accessible. S-DVI is available in a variety of permanent plans and as term insurance. S-DVI policies are issued for a maximum amount of $10,000. Veterans covered by S-DVI are eligible to apply for a waiver of premium if they are totally disabled for six consecutive months prior to age 65 due to their service-connected disability or disabilities.

Supplemental S-DVI is additional insurance coverage of up to $30,000 available to Veterans who are covered by S-DVI and have received a waiver of premiums on their coverage.

Service Dog

www.assistancedogsinternational.org/

www.igdf.org.uk/

Description

The VA considers a service dog a prosthetic device. Therefore, it must provide a specific trained function and the loss of the dog would severely impact a Veteran’s ability to recover from a substantial mobility limitation.

Eligibility

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Active Duty</th>
<th>National Guard</th>
<th>Reserve</th>
<th>Veteran</th>
<th>Family Member</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

VA does not provide service dogs. Instead, VA partners with certain accredited dog organizations to provide the service dog to the Veteran. VA provides the veterinary insurance benefit so service dogs can do their jobs to assist Veterans with mobility limitations.

Veterans have no out-of-pocket expenses for this benefit. Covered benefits include:

• Equipment such as a harness or backpack that allows for optimal use of the dog
• Prescribed medications
• Veterinary office visits
• Dental procedures where the dog is sedated
• All required vaccinations

VA does not cover grooming or food. However, if food is prescribed by a veterinarian, coverage will be decided on a case-by-case basis. Treats, over the counter medications, and dental care where the dog is fully awake are not covered.

VA provides this veterinary benefit to Veterans who have a significant mobility limitation from either a physical or mental health condition. More specifically, a health condition must adversely affect gait, balance, strength, dexterity, or someone’s ability to transition to a safe environment in the event of potential physical or emotional harm to be considered eligible for this benefit.
Veterans should work with their VA health care providers to determine if they are eligible for this benefit. A VA health care treatment team will conduct an individualized health assessment to evaluate whether the service dog is the optimal means to mitigate the Veteran’s chronic mobility limitation.

Apply/Access

To obtain a service dog, Veterans should work with an organization that is accredited by either Assistance Dogs International (ADI) or the International Guide Dog Federation (IGDF). There are listings on each organization’s website of affiliated local organizations. Additionally, the Veteran’s local VA medical center may be able to provide recommendations for local service dog organizations that provide service dogs to other Veterans.

While there are many organizations that train dogs, VA is bound by law to only cover service dogs from these two accrediting organizations.

Veterans Pension

In addition to meeting minimum service requirements, the Veteran must be:

- Age 65 or older, OR

Combat-Related Special Compensation (CRSC)

Description
CRSC is a program that was created for disabled and non-disabled military retirees with combat-related disabilities. It is a tax-free entitlement that Veterans will be paid each month along with any retired pay they may already be receiving.

Eligibility

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Active Duty</th>
<th>National Guard</th>
<th>Reserve</th>
<th>Veteran</th>
<th>Family Member</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Veterans must meet all the following criteria to be eligible for CRSC:

- Be eligible to receive military retired pay
- Have a disability that has been deemed combat-related by their military service branch and determined to be service-connected to a compensable degree by VA
- Have military retired pay offset by VA compensation

Upon receipt of an application for CRSC, the respective branch of service will determine whether a disability is combat-related. Disabilities that may be considered combat-related include injuries and diseases that were the direct result of one of the following:

- Armed conflict (e.g., gunshot wounds or receipt of a Purple Heart)
- Engagement in hazardous duty (e.g., flight, diving, or parachute duty)
• Performance of duty under conditions simulating war (e.g., field training or tactical road march)
• An instrumentality of war (e.g., combat vehicles, weapons, or Agent Orange)

Exceptions under CRSC
The following exceptions apply:

• If you have a compensable VA service-connected disability rating of 10% or greater, then you may be eligible for CRSC.
• An application for CRSC benefits must be submitted to your military service department, which will make an eligibility determination. If it is determined you have a service-connected disability or disabilities that are considered combat-related, then you may be eligible for CRSC benefits.
• CRSC will replace an equivalent portion of any VA disability offset, and CRSC will then be paid in addition to your non-offset VA compensation rate.

Apply/Access
Contact your branch of service.

Concurrent Retirement and Disability Pay (CRDP)
www.dfas.mil/retiredmilitary/disability/crdp.html

Description
CRDP allows military retirees to receive both military retired pay and VA compensation. This was prohibited until the CRDP program began on Jan. 1, 2004.
CRDP was a “phase in” of benefits that gradually restored a retiree’s VA disability offset. This means that an eligible retiree’s retired pay gradually increased each year until the phase in was completed effective Jan. 2014.
Veterans do not need to apply for CRDP. If qualified, they will be enrolled automatically.

Eligibility

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Active Duty</th>
<th>National Guard</th>
<th>Reserve</th>
<th>Veteran</th>
<th>Family Member</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

To qualify, Veterans must also meet all the following criteria:
• Retired based on length of service, or a Reserve retiree with 20 qualifying years of service and reached retirement age
• Be entitled to receive retired pay (must be offset by VA payments)

Payment is coordinated between VA and the DoD. If a Veteran receives retired pay based on a disability, CRDP is subject to an offset in the amount by which disability retired pay exceeds retired pay based on length of service.

Exceptions under CRDP

• If you have a combined disability rating of 50% or greater, and are in receipt of or otherwise entitled to receive military retired pay based on your length of service, you should be eligible to receive CRDP benefits.
• If you’re entitled to receive CRDP, you will receive full military retirement pay and full VA disability compensation.

Apply/Access

For more information on how to apply, contact your parent military branch, visit www.dfas.mil/retiredmilitary/disability/payment.html, or call 1-800-321-1080.

If you’re entitled to receive any retroactive benefits, based on a previously waived amount, VA will work directly with the Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) to release the proper amount of those offset funds.
