

Kathy Gibbons is Senior Advisor for Policy and Program Development in the Office of Issuer and Portfolio Management at Ginnie Mae, focusing on complex transactions, issuer liquidity, new product development, executive agency coordination and regulatory activity. She has held the position since April 2011, following more than three years as the Director of the Single-Family MBS Division, with responsibility for policy and product development, issuer management, risk evaluation, and government and industry communications.

Kathy came to Ginnie Mae from MBA where she was the staff specialist for secondary mortgage market issues. Before MBA, Kathy was a senior manager for structured transactions and markets at Ernst & Young.

Her prior employment also includes nine years at Fannie Mae as a securities lawyer and later as MBS Capital Markets Director for the REMIC program, with responsibility for both single-family and multifamily mortgage backed transactions.

Kathy's work background also includes serving at HUD as special assistant to Secretary Patricia Roberts Harris, working as a law firm litigation associate and handling securities compliance as a lawyer for National Housing Partnership.

Kathy holds a J.D. from George Washington University.
