

Maura Neill

MAURA NEILL (ABR, CRS, e-PRO, MRP, MA) is a second generation REALTOR® and proud daughter, sister, granddaughter, niece, and cousin of veterans. An agent with RE/MAX Around Atlanta, Maura actively works with home buyers and sellers in Atlanta, Georgia, as the number one team in her brokerage three years running and is also an international real estate speaker and instructor. In 2012, Maura worked with the National Association of REALTOR® (NAR) on the creation of the Military Relocation Professional Certification (MRP) as the Lead Instructor and Subject Matter Expert. Maura has also actively worked with the Department of the VA as Chair of the Federal Financing and Housing Policy Committee for NAR in 2018, a committee on which she has held a seat for more than 5 years. A devoted REALTOR® volunteer, she is active in her real estate Associations at the local, state, and national levels, and is an investor in RPAC as a Platinum R and a member of the RPAC President's Circle and Hall of Fame. Maura lives in Sandy Springs, Georgia, with her husband Ben, their beagles Charlie, Jarvis, and Bebe, and a cat who wishes to remain anonymous.
