

Rick Bettencourt

Rick Bettencourt comes from a family with deep and long military ties. He has been assisting Veterans in utilizing their VA Home Loan Benefit for over 16 years. His personal production averages approximately $40,000,000 / year with an annual VA Home Loan Origination average of about 88%. He is currently Mortgage Network's number 1 VA Mortgage Originator. In addition to his VA Mortgage Origination, Rick is also regular volunteer at several VA Medical Facilities in and around Boston, MA where he assists Veterans in a variety of financial literacy workshops. He's been teaching the Massachusetts Association of Realtors VA Home Loan Continuing Education Class for the last 4 years and feels strongly that more education is required to assist our Veterans in making their dreams of homeownership a reality. In September of 2017, Rick was elected as President-Elect for the National Association of Mortgage Brokers. NAMB is currently celebrating it's 45th Anniversary and has been continually recognized as a leader in Mortgage Broker, Mortgage Originator, Consumer, Veteran, and Small Business advocacy. He lives in Danvers, MA with his beautiful wife Jenn and their 13 year old daughter Kailey.
